

Canyon volunteer firemen fight a $350,000 fire that totally destroyed the Lexington Motor Inn Tuesday night, and fire chief Jack Jennings suspects arson in the cause of the blaze.

The motor inn was about 90 per cent completed, according to owner Zolon Wilkins, and he said the building cost was $400,000.

Arson Suspected Cause In $350,000 Motel Fire

Arson is suspected in the $350,000 fire which roared through the nearly complete Lexington Motor Inn and threatened palatial Hunsley Hills Tuesday night.

Fire Chief Jack Jennings said he definitely believes arson was the cause of the blaze that was reported about 6:30 p.m.

"No doubt it was arson...it burned too fast too quick. We had the fire under control in about an hour and 10 minutes," Jennings added, but by that time the structure, which was nearly 90 per cent complete, was a total loss.

Eyewitness reports said the roof of the 72-unit building began to collapse approximately six minutes after the blaze was reported.

Fire marshal Glen Metcalf said a state fire marshal has been called to investigate the fire, and he is expected to arrive in Canyon late this week or early next week.

"I will go ahead with the investigation on gathering reports from people, but I called the state marshal in to investigate the motel itself," Metcalf explained early Wednesday morning.

Metcalf said they would just have to go through the debris piece by piece and see if they could find any chemicals or containers. "We will also have to check the electrical appliances."

Several young boys were walking down U.S. 60 near Poole's Trailer Park just before the firemen arrived. One of the boys, Carrol Ashley said he saw seven or eight people working on the roof of the motel.

"They jumped off the roof and just stood there for a minute. Then I saw smoke coming out of the third or fourth door on this side (west) of the building. I just saw a little bit of smoke. I don't know what happened to those fellows we saw," the youngster said.

B.C. Taylor, owner of a service station across the street from the structure, said he saw the smoke and drove to the building, but by the time he returned to call the fire department the building was ablaze. He reported seeing a red car drive away from the motor inn minutes before he spotted the smoke.

Eight units and 28 men of the Canyon Fire Department were pressed into service to fight the fire. The department's new snorkel was used throughout the fire fighting.

A brisk easterly wind gusting to 40 miles an hour at times hindered the fireman's efforts, but without the snorkel it wouldn't have made any difference, Jennings said. The snorkel, which is capable of dumping 1,000 gallons of water per minute on a fire, saved the section of the building that was left standing.

Zolon Wilkins, Jr., owner of the building, said he had no idea what started the fire, but no one had been authorized to be in or on the building at the time when the fire started.

His father Zolon Wilkins, Sr., of Dallas said this was the first major fire in any of the 15 Lexington Motor Inns, but construction would begin again on the Canyon motel as soon as possible. He added he was just sorry the insurance rates in Canyon would go up because of the fire.

Developer Arch Hunsley, who owned the land on which the building stands, said he talked with the older Wilkins immediately after the fire was reported and Wilkins said, "Go, go, go. We will build again."

Pete Pindle, husband of the assistant manager of the Cambridge House Apartment just east of the motor inn, said he dragged water hoses around to the west side of the apartments to be prepared to wet down the walls and roofing if the wind blew hot sparks across the street and onto the apartment building.

"The wind shifted and began blowing north, so we didn't have to wet down the building," Pindle declared as he eyed the raging fire.

Nig Carter, one of the first to see the fire, said fire trucks arrived on the scene within a minute after being called. Carter, Jimmy Burgen and Gary McRoberts were in the Cowboy Cafe, (See ARSON, page 5)

Miss Brantley, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Brantley received savings bonds donated by First National Bank and West Texas State Bank. She will represent Canyon in the Miss Irish Rose contest at Shamrock Saturday.

The Miss Congeniality trophy went to Miss Cindy Blanton, who also received a gift certicate from McDonald's Dress Shop.

The judges met the 48 entries in the pageant at a punch party at the Canyon Community Center Saturday afternoon. The decision makers were Antonio, who owns fashion shops in Amarillo, Naples, and Rome,

Cold Temps May Freeze Fruit Trees

Temperatures of freezing or slightly below freezing could kill the fruit crop of trees in Randall County, according to County Agent John Brazzil.

The average date for the last frost is between April 10 and April 15, Brazzil said, but the county has had the last freeze as late as May and as early as March.

The fruit trees are budding earlier this year than in the past several years because of the warmer weather and earlier spring, Brazzil reported.

The length of time the temperature stays below freezing could have an effect on the damage to the fruit crop as well as the development of the fruit.

Brazzil said trees are particularly sensitive to cold temperatures while budding but not so sensitive after the trees bear fruit.

For Rendering Firm

New Plant Site Sought

Dr. Joe Markham said he and his associates will probably look for another site for their proposed rendering plant as a result of a Tuesday night meeting protesting plans to build one just west of Randall County Feed Yard. Markham said this is the second time he has changed his plans for the site of the plant which he hopes will evolve into a dog food factory and possibly a tannery.

Some 40 persons attended the meeting Tuesday night at the country home of Dr. Tom Gerald who is leading the protest.

Proposed site for the rendering plant was about 150 yards east of the Gerald home.

Dr. Gerald acted as spokesman for the protesting group. He said objections are based on pollution, odor and devaluation of property if the plant were to go into operation.

"We believe that such a rendering plant for dead animals would create air and water pollution and it would surely cause devaluation of property for a considerable distance," Dr. Gerald went on.

Dr. Markham told the group that he is associated in the undertaking with Clay Cooper and Milton Morris, both of Canyon.

Markham said he thinks such a plant would render a service to Randall County since the carcasses of many dead animals now are being left to create a stench and pollution hazard.

He said he approached Dr. Gerald with an offer to buy land from the Amarillo dentist further from the Gerald summer home.

Dr. Markham told the group that he had asked for a private meeting with Dr. Gerald but had been unable to arrange one.

He said the plant would not cause an odor for more than a quarter mile and that the only possible health hazard would be encountered only if an animal dead of anthrax were rendered in the plant. In this case, he said, some drastic measures might have to be taken.

Most of the people at the meeting seemed to agree with Dr. Gerald that the plant at the proposed site would create a nuisance and would be detrimental to property values.

"We had just hoped to get in under the umbrella of the feed yard and not have the smell noticed," Dr. Markham asserted.

Markham said that since so much opposition had been en-devaluation of property for a considerable distance," Dr. Gerald went on.

FROM THE

CANYON RIM

Two Democratic candidates for the US Senate have been in my office in the past week.

One was Barefoot Sanders, a major candidate, and the other was Tom Cartledge, of whom I hadn't heard until he arrived in town.

I'm not really expecting the third Democratic candidate to drop by. He, of course, is Ralph W. Yarborough, defeated two years ago in a re-election bid.

The former senator at 68 is trying again. He's been running for office since the mid-1930's.

In the primary I'll pick Barefoot. I'm reserving judgement on next fall when the Democrat will be pitted against Republican Incumbent John Tower, presently senior senator from Texas.

I like Barefoot personally because he is so friendly and accessible. I've approved of much of Tower's ideology but I've never liked him personally.

Sanders is friendly and outgoing while Tower is arrogant and I have found him unapproachable. When he visited the West Texas State University campus last fall I asked him a question about China just to get the ball rolling.

He turned on me and put me down with vehemence. I've written to him a couple of times about community problems. The only answer I have in my files is his reply in accepting a speaking engagement here in 1964.

His personality doesn't keep him from being a good senator and I may support him in November but I'll have to grit my teeth to vote for the self-centered little cuss in spite of the fact that I like his politics most of the time.

If Sanders does become senator he will have to educate himself on the issues. Although he has served as a US attorney I think he is naive in his stated plan for dealing with the communist world.

He says he would approve of a unilateral pull-out of American troops from Vietnam in return for an agreement for return of our POWs.

How can you horse trade when you've already given the other fellow all your horses?

He has no plan for forcing the return of our prisoners except an apparent faith that Hanoi will ultimately do the right thing on this question.

I think Barefoot needs to talk to the Finns, the Poles, the Czechs, the Hungarians and the Tibetans.

I like Barefoot's call for reasserting the power of Congress. Again I don't know how he hopes to bring this about. Most of the power in federal government has been sponged up by the executive and judiciary branches.

Barefoot could well have a mill stone around his neck in November. Either George McGovern or Ted Kennedy would be a real albatross for any Democratic Candidate in Texas.

Either of these men as Democratic standard bearer might even elect a Republican governor.

And Barefoot has already vowed he will support the Democratic nominee on the national ticket sight unseen.

I think this also is politically naive in a state that simply will not give its 26 electoral votes to George or Teddy.

As for Mr. Cartledge, who plans to walk across Texas or from Denton or some place to the Alamo to attract attention, he has two chances of getting elected — slim and none.

I'm predicting at this point that the 29½ year old ex-Marine captain will get less than 2 percent of the vote.

He charged that Tower is getting money from "big oil men."

I asked him to name two.

He couldn't.

He said he'd supply me with the names. I'm still waiting.

Of course, the senatorial campaign is going to pit me against one of my favorite people — Dr. Charles Townsend who will be supporting Yarborough again.

I never miss one of Dr. Townsend's religious lectures if I can help it. He is one of the best informed speakers I have ever heard.

I have been puzzled for years as to how such an otherwise fine and brilliant fellow could possibly show such poor judgement

Charity Ball Set

BY SUSAN DOLLE

THIS GERMAN COMMUNITY WILL celebrate the Wear-in of the Green St. Patrick's Day when the Umbarger Knights of Columbus help host the Bishop's Charity Ball Saturday night in St. Mary's Parish hall. Knights of Columbus members their wives and guests from over the Panhandle area will be in attendance.

HIS EXCELLENCY, Lawrence M. DeFalco, Bishop of Amarillo, will also attend. Proceeds from the evening will be given to the Bishop's Catholic charities within the Amarillo diocese; these charities include the Panhandle Children's Home and the Family Services office in Amarillo.

MANY LOCAL AND AREA businesses donate money and goods to cover the evening's expenses so that all the ball's proceeds are given to the charity project.

AT ITS REGULAR MEETING Tuesday night the Knights of Columbus elected delegates to their state convention in Fort Worth May 11-14. Ed Wieck and Anton Handing will represent this council with Jack Brandt and R.D. Friemel serving as alternates.

THE KNIGHTS OF Columbus has a bowling team which is going great guns this spring. Well into the last half of play, the young men now are in first place, playing with half-a-dozen other teams. The leagues play in the activities center at WTSU. Johnny Batenhorst serves as team captain. Assorted brothers and cousins help him — Charles, Harold, Ralph, and Leon Batenhorst are team members, as well as David Ehly.

MR. AND MRS. E.A. Stocker recently received a mailing from their son in Dallas concerning the Dallas citizens who maintain an interest in the Prisoners of War and those men Missing in Action. They began in 1971 to help the wives of these men who were trying to keep the public's mind open to the plight of their loved ones. The group does keep the issue before the public through public service announcements on radio and television stations. They keep the news media informed on what's new about the POWs. Sometimes it's good news — a letter arrived. Sometimes it's sad news — another anniversary date of a POW's capture. They also continually write the President and Congressmen to sponsor an amendment which stresses provisions for the identification and prompt release of all POWs to all bills concerning the termination of the Southeast Asia conflict. They maintain that the North Vietnamese sample public opinion through news clipping services, and have reacted favorably in some instances.

THERE ARE 1700 men whom we cannot in conscience forget. We must maintain an interest in their welfare too, for they have defended our liberty and way of life.

This marks the fifth time in 11 years that co-championships have been awarded in Missouri Valley Conference basketball. This year both Louisville and Memphis State finished the season with 122 marks. Louisville won a playoff Saturday by 10 points and will represent the MVC in the NCAA Midwest Regional Tournament.

The Associated Press ranks Louisville number four in the nation and Memphis State number 11, while United Press International ranks the Cardinals number six and the Tigers number nine.

Steve Davidson of WTSU was the MVC individual rebounding champ in the MVC this year with 420 caroms in 24 games. That was 56 more than Terry Benton of Memphis State, who played two more games that did Davidson. The Buffs led all of the MVC in rebounding with 1440.

After four championship events, Memphis State holds the Valley's all-sports lead with 36 ½ points. Drake is second with 28½. The Buffs are seventh with 16.

Tommy Bryant, WT sports information director, wonders what it will be like when the Buffs meet some of the top teams in the MVC basketball wars next year. "We were 3-4 against the bottom four teams in the Valley this year," he said, "and a couple of them beat us like a drum. Gosh 'O Friday. I wonder what the good teams in the league are like."

WT will join the MVC title fight next year along with newcomer New Mexico State.

A sports release from Tulsa sports information director Jerry Pogue received Tuesday said, "After shooting off to perhaps the finest start in years, the University of Tulsa tennis team will invade Canyon, Texas, site of the big West Texas State tournament, hoping to continue the hot pace that has helped them to four consecutive shut-out victories."

But Tulsa had the tables turned on them. In the finals of that tournament held last weekend the Buff netters blanked Tulsa 9-0, to capture the trophy for the second consecutive year.

There have been some changes in the Tulsa football staff, according to head mentor "Hoot" Gibson. Receiver coach Ted Plumb resigned to take a similar post at Kansas. Doug Gerhart, offensive coordinator and backfield coach, will continue as offensive coordinator, but will work with the quarterbacks and receivers. Tom Ososkie moves from the defensive backfield to take charge of the running backs.

really gets to you in a hurry. We've all been a little busy around here so will pass a little news on to you from all of us:

THE BLUE BIRDS HAD THEIR annual "Date with Dads" this weekend in Amarillo. All had a very good time and a good visit with their neighbors. Those attending were: Roger Whitehead and daughter, Shelley, Mr. Langford and daughter, Kim, Lori Lee Laird and her Dad Lynn, Sam Bybee and daughter Lenise, Tracy Gillis and her dad, Gil, and Stormie Moreland with her Grandpa. Stormie's Dad had to be out of town so her Grandpa filled in, isn't it nice to have a wonderful Grandpa like that!!!

WANT TO SEND A GREAT BIG congratulations along to the Bill Burdette family. A new member has been added to the family, via a new horse colt. Their mare Mitzitana had a lovely black with white blanket Appaloosa, and the daddy was our stallion Shapparel Sam. If you haven't seen the pretty little thing take the kid-does and go by way of the back alley and have a peek before he starts to shed, then go back after he sheds and see what he'll look like. Don't know what they will name him yet.

THE LTC. LADIES THURSDAY Club met at Mike Whitehead's again this week. We had a special guest, Becky Hall, the Home Demonstration Agent for Randall County. She gave us a program on selecting jewelry to coordinate with your clothes and your skin and hair tones. We were glad to have another visitor, Joyce Miner. She's one of our neighbors and its real nice to get to know her a lot better. We all enjoyed lunch together and had a good time together.

HAVE A LITTLE LATE news but want to send it along. It seems that Mike Burdett Skeeter and Scooter Rogers were given a very special weekend a little while back. Joe Batson flew them up to the ranch around Spearman in his helicopter and they spent the weekend camping out and went on some hunting trips in the jeeps and they all just had a great time. The boys across the street from the Burdette's helped to arrange the whole thing and went along for the fun.

WELL, THE BYBEE HOUSE was jumping with guests and excitement Sunday afternoon. We had some very special guests from Mexico visit us and have dinner. Francis and Eva Venezuela and their young son, Aramenda were here. They were sponsored by the First Baptist Church of Amarillo and its River Ministry of which our church participates with them in. Aramenda was born with a growth in his foot and leg and he was operated on a couple of weeks ago and is doing so much better. He had on his first pair of shoes and was quite proud of them. They speak no English but language was no problem with the sweet smiles and open hearts on both sides we all did fine. They are staying with the Raymond Gonzales family in Amarillo and they to were here Sunday with their daughter Edna. They will be leaving to return to their home in Mexico and we will surely miss them but be better people just from knowing them. To see a little boy go from being completely lame to walking almost normally is like a miracle.

HEARD THAT BOB Morgan was involved in a most curious accident this weekend. Between a large truck, Volkswagen and their car. No one was hurt thank goodness but the description of the whole affair was something else.

HOPE LITTLE TRINA Cooper is all better and up and at 'em again.

SAW A FEW friendly faces around this past week. But not too many as I was kinda busy. Saw Sandy Fowlkes and her cousin when they stopped by to use our phone. Seems that daddy locked the house with them all on the outside and they couldn't get in when they came home and daddy was gone. Saw Sherrie Evans out with doggies tagging along for a walk. Saw Joyce Miner out for her daily walk. Talked with Sam Rogers, Jr., and he's busy in college and has plans to be an architect. Saw many, many kiddoes on motorcycles, horses and trampolines. Saw the Wayne Steen's busy on their new home. Saw Marty Johnson and her dad, Corky, enjoying an afternoon of horseback riding. Saw Roger Whitehead and son, Spooky fixing a bicycle wheel. Saw a batch of good neighbors out enjoying the nice weather.

HERE IS OUR featured family for the week, Judy and Lynn Laird who live on Mescalero Trail in the two story house. Thank you Judy for typing this for me.

LYNN IS THE HEAD athletic trainer and an instructor in the Physical Education Dept. at WTSU. He is attending evening classes and working toward his Masters. He is a registered Physical Therapist and works at the various hospitals in Amarillo during the summer. He is also a Captain in the Bio Medical Services of the Air Force Reserve and does his 2 week duty every summer in San Antonio, Texas. In his spare (?) time he enjoys garden and yard work. This past summer and fall he built Judy a nice sewing-hobby room. Lynn is from Coleman, Texas and graduated from Texas A&M.

JUDY IS FROM Mason City, Iowa. She lived in England for 5 1/2 years and graduated from an American high school in London. The most exciting event that year was her graduating class going to Rome, Italy for their class trip. After graduation, she and her parents toured Europe visiting Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Germany, Austria, France and Greece. Judy and Lynn met and married in England and their oldest daughter, Lora Lee, age 9, was born in England. Lynn was in the Air Force at this time. Among their souvenirs is a gold cross necklace from Spain, a ring from Greece, an antique silver urn and candelabra from England. Lynn spent 60 days duty in Morocco and brought back a camel saddle and a large brass tray. They also have a small collection of foreign dolls. Since returning from England in 1963, they have lived in Dallas, Kingsville, Texas and Colorado Springs, Colorado. They have one other daughter, Lisa Lynne, age 1 1/2 — better known as "Spoiled Rotten".

JUDY'S INTERESTS ARE sewing, greenware and various other crafts. She enjoys decorating their home for all holidays such as Valentines Day, Easter, Halloween and of course Christmas.

THE FAMILY IS A member of the First Baptist Church of Canyon where Judy works in the preschool department.

Add 1 cup chopped pecans. Spread in greased & floured cake pan. (Makes 2 small or one large cake) Bake at 350° 25-30 minutes.

I KNOW somewhere out there, there is a whole lot of interesting things going on, and a lot of news about all of you we would like to hear about, but you just won't call me. Please, let me urge you to call. It won't take you but a minute and I would really appreciate it and the rest of the neighbors like to read about you and yours. Please, don't be bashful or whatever, just call, 622-1417.

O.K., TILL NEXT time, God Bless.

OH YES, one last word: To one of my precious friends: Doris Carr: You know one more birthday is an asset to you. The longer I know you the better I love you. Happy Birthday Doris.

Four Delegates

To TSTA Meeting

Four Canyon teachers recently served as official delegates to the annual state convention of the Texas Classroom Teachers Association in Dallas February 18-19.

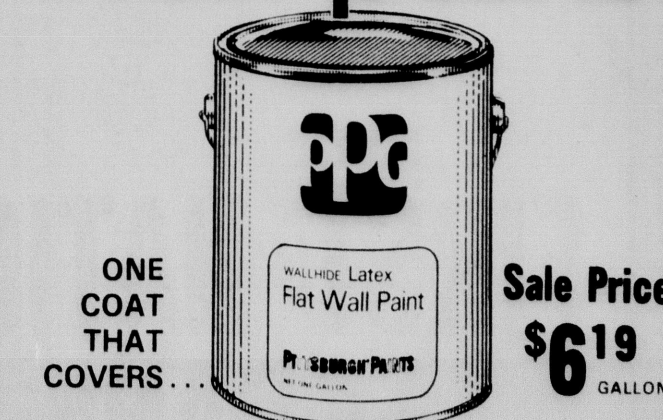

Delegates representing the Canyon Classroom Teachers Association were Anna Lee Reeves, first grade teacher at Rex Reeves Elementary; Vera Brown, art teacher at Canyon Junior High; Herman Demus, math teacher at Canyon Junior High; and Leonard Kent, biology teacher at Canyon High.

The voting of convention delegates played an important role in the future development of TCTA. It was at this convention that the Representative Assembly of TCTA voted for the organization to become a department affiliate of the Texas State Teachers Association — a statewide organization which includes all persons involved in education.

Palisades Palaver

Palisadites All Okay

BY VICKI HOOKER

FOR THOSE OF YOU who live in Palisades and read this column, and particularly for those who live elsewhere and read it, please note: the Palisades is not a convalescent center. If ones reads only the headlines of the two previous columns, he would think we are all anemic! But actually we are all quite well now, and to observe our weekend activities it would seem that most of us are abnormally healthy. May it never be said that our community doesn't do its bit for noise pollution! But anyway, despite injuries and the flu, we are all still here, and not becoming extinct as some may think!

SOME OF YOU MAY remember Sherri Pinson who belonged to our Home Demonstration Club last year. Her father-in-law, Mr. Wade Pinson passed away last Friday in his home in Amarillo. If you would like to send her a card or call her expressing sympathy, her address is 2601 Douglas, Amarillo, and her phone number is 355-8018.

JERRI THOMPSON is in Lubbock this week with her mother. Her mother, who is 81, fell and broke her hip, and was home alone for about 2 hours before anyone found her. We hope her hip will mend quickly, and she'll be up and around again soon.

I TALKED TO Ellie Boothe last Sunday just to find out what her family was doing. We had sort of lost contact with her since she started to work. She said they hadn't been doing much of anything out of the ordinary, but they are planning a trip to San Marcos over the Easter holidays. Her parents have moved there from Lamesa. Hope they have a safe trip, and that they have more news to report when they return!

NELL MOORE probably thought that if she didn't tell, I wouldn't find out. But I did, thanks to Ellie! Congratulations on your new position in the Gene Howe PTA as recorder parliamentarian. Nell and congratulations on your new El Camino.

THE SPOTLIGHT is on Ernie and Euna Alfred this week. They have lived here about two years, moving from Amarillo Public Schools and Euna for Levi Strauss. Stanley of Amarillo and Frankie who is in the Marines are their two sons.

BOTH EUNA AND ERNIE

Miss Louella Patterson spoke on the planting and care of bulbs at a meeting of the Palo Duro Mother-in-Law Club Mar. 10 in the home of Mrs. Mae Johnson.

Mrs. W.R. Crawford was co-hostess.

The members answered roll call with household hints.

Mrs. Clark McClendon, chaplain, gave the devotional.

Also present were Mesdames Frances Northeutt, Ruth Allen, Nell Sheets, Leonard Winters, Alice Black, Arthur Olsen, Gladis Samples, Lucille Rogers, M.J. Noel, J.P. Hammons, H.E. Campfield and Gladys Haines.

Mrs. Modena Barker was a guest.

like to fish, and she said that that was one of the main reasons they like the Palisades. At present they are building onto their trailer, and have already completed a basement, living room, bedroom, bath, and utility room. So if you hear hammering and banging going on over near the Thompsons, don't think anything about it. It's just Ernie and Euna burning that midnight oil!

SEVERAL PEOPLE HAD asked me if I knew anything about the Dustman's. I talked to Roma over the weekend, and they are all doing well. She said she's back into that old routine of washing, drying and folding clothes, and every spare minute Robert has, he spends cleaning up around their house that burned. Roma says that when she goes over there she takes the southside and crosses the boxcar (as much as she hates the boxcar) instead of taking the north side, because that view of what's left is not as painful to look at as the other side. We'd probably all agree that they have their work cut out for them, but the clean-up process is coming along fine. And once construction begins, it won't be anytime before they'll be back in their own home again. We wish them the best of everything, and hope we can be of some help when they need it.

A BIT OF LATE NEWS: Judy Webb, Joyce McDonald, Carolyn Bailey, Belva Turner, and Kathy Bautista left the children at home with their dads weekend before last and went skiing in Red River, and from all indications had a ball. They took lessons, but somehow still managed to slide down the slopes on something other than their skis! Joyce said the chair lifts were something short of horrifying, what with Judy wiggling around taking pictures from them. And when they jumped out at the top of the slope they both fell. But no injuries were encountered, and they had a very enjoyable trip. Now, Joyce gets to stay home while Paul enjoys a trip to Las Vegas after Easter.

LAS VEGAS WILL BE THE sight for the Mint 400 in which Randy Carthel and Mike Terry of Amarillo will be riding in this weekend. They will be going with J.R. and Jackie Home and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moss. We hope they have a safe trip and that both the boys do well.

THE BOARD MEETING WAS last Tuesday night, but due to deadlines I will not be able to report on it until next week. Sorry, Lum.

JODELL WALKER RECEIVED a call from Bob, who is in Dallas going to a 4-week school. He said the first night he was there he ate 58 shrimp! Now we don't know why he bothered to count them, but he did say he wasn't hungry for the next day or so. He will be home this weekend until Sunday afternoon when he will return to Dallas for another two weeks.

THE WEATHER MAY LOOK like spring is here to stay, but more than likely we will have a freeze that will kill all the beautiful fruit trees that are in bloom. However, a little bird told me that you can save your trees by hanging a piece of iron in them, providing the piece of iron doesn't pull the tree over!

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY TO Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brandon. Just thought I'd slip that in!

4-H Hears Talk Tips

Members of the Jowell 4-H Club heard Miss Connie Brazzil speak on "How to Give a Method Demonstration" at their March meeting. She also invited the members to join the 4-H Junior Leaders organization as soon as they become 13 years old.

Miss Brazzil suggested that when preparing a demonstration, the speaker should select a simple and interesting topic, collect all the information available, then make a step-by-step outline.

After getting background information and planning the demonstration, he should prepare visual aids such as posters or charts and collect the equipment needed, such as an easel, pointer, and table. Miss Brazzil said that a concise summary of the main points should conclude the presentation. If a team gives the demonstration, an equal distribution of talk and work should be developed, she added.

Mrs. James Irlbeck, leader, urged the members to enter a contest of method demonstration or a judging team. Sign-ups were taken for livestock judging, dairy judging, share-the-fun, and the 4-H Food Show.

Mrs. Becky Hall, county home demonstration agent, was a guest. There were 20 members and 10 adults at the meeting.

The club will meet next on April 7. A bowling party is also being planned.

Homemakers Attend Meet

Twenty seven Future Homemakers from Canyon High School and Canyon Junior High will attend the annual meeting of the Area I Future Homemakers of America March 17-18.

About 3,000 members from the Panhandle-South Plains are expected to attend the meeting in the Amarillo Civic Center.

Sponsors from Canyon to attend the meet are Mrs. Wilma Dunias, Miss Janet Sargent, Mrs. Cathy Cameron, and Mrs. Whitley.

Nine students from Canyon will sing with the Area I choir. They are Beverly Podzemny, Elizabeth Zachry, Dianna Wilhite, J. Wiek, Elaine Smiley, Nanette Reagen and Wanda Heathington.

A talent program and election of officers will be held the evening of March 17 and Dr. Gerald Mann, pastor of the Hereford First Baptist Church will speak March 18.

The theme for the meeting is "Decisions for You in '72."

Miss Wiens To Aid In Tower Campaign

Miss Sue Anne Wiens, a graduate of West Texas State University has been named coordinator for 13 counties for Sen. John Tower's re-election campaign to the United States Senate.

Miss Wiens teaches at Lawn-dale Elementary School in Amarillo.

Tidbits

BY CAROL CRAIN

IN CASE YOU wondered, the fine service given to guests at the Chamber of Commerce banquet last week was from members of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. It was great guys, thanks.

PHYLLIS GEORGE, Miss America 1971 and former Miss Texas, has been named Chairman of the 1972 Easter Seal Campaign in Texas. She will head over 35,000 volunteers in an appeal for funds.

21,562 children are currently being helped by the society.

THIS YEAR'S Miss World-USA is a junior at the University of Texas. The 5'7" beauty is named Brucene Smith.

Miss Texas Universe and first runner-up for the national title is, of course, Brenda Box of Amarillo.

Miss Tall USA is a coed at North Texas State University.

Yes, Texas does have beautiful girls. And speaking of them...

MISS CANYON, Julie Brantley, will represent the city this Saturday in the Miss Irish Rose contest in Shamrock. This will be the first of several beauty pageants Julie will enter.

Julie is certainly a charming representative for the city — congratulations, Julie. She is the daughter of the Royal Brantleys.

A CUTE EASTER BASKET can be made from a bleach bottle. The front is cut out, probably with a razor blade, (save it, you'll use part of it to make a cap later).

A styrofoam ball (medium size) is glued to the bottle top. The face is glued onto the ball. This can take the shape of a duck or a rabbit (two eyes, either a yellow bill for the duck or small mouth, a nose and long pink ears for a rabbit). Top with a hat (trimmed with a number of small net bows and tiny flowers).

Another group of net bows decorated with dainty flowers are glued or wired around the opening in the front of the rabbit. Inside the youngsters can put the colorful Easter grass and eggs. Plus, they can hold it by the handle, while at the Easter Egg hunt.

SO, LUCI NUGENT will be in town April 18. The former White House resident was invited by the Department of Special Services of the Canyon Independent School District.

Mrs. Hazel Strickland works with the learning disabilities groups within the school system. Mrs. Nugent will speak on learning disabilities at 7:30 p.m. in the junior high auditorium.

Mrs. Strickland is certainly thorough in searching for keys to enthrone others about her program — and perhaps this is part of the reason why she has such success.

THAT HAIR DESIGN seminar scheduled this week has been postponed until April because of the speaker's illness.

A WEIGHT WATCHERS menu has been added to the WTSU cafeteria. This is certainly a step in the right direction, I believe. Many coeds like to watch the calorie intake — and it is hard to do so on regular cafeteria food.

Weight Watchers meet at the United Methodist Church at 7 p.m. each Tuesday. For more information on the group you might attend one of the meetings.

HERE'S A BRIDAL SHOWER idea via Margaret Harper. Take the bride's first name and place one letter of her name on a separate sheet of paper.

Pass each sheet around to the guests at the shower so that they may write a note of advice (starting with that particular letter).

An example for the name SUSIE: S-Save money by shopping supermarket specials; U-Use plastic bags found on bread and other so wrapped food items to freeze in, etc.; S-Serve something he especially likes each night for dinner; I-Include him in all major purchases; E-Elevate his spirits each morning.

(And, this advice is sure to be only the beginning that every bride will get from family and friends, so it is best we prepare her!)

Oh, yes, better place a grain of salt on each sheet then give it to the bride!

Here's one more thought along that line — take the word Tidbits and try to write down each homemaking or economy tip you can think of, then send them to me (2704 Second Ave. in Canyon) and I'll share them with my readers, howabout?

ANY CARTOONISTS AROUND? I ran across this item via the phone. It seems several placement services are listing this job as available:

Ghost cartoonist, part-time; write Q.E. Williams, Williams Publishing, P.O. Box 4222, zip 61110.

Must be good in satire, humor, send samples of your work.

BILL CLOUGH, Jr. son-in-law of the J.E. Lows, received first place in the Texas Associated Press Managing Editors Association in the news photo contest for 1971.

Clough, who is currently with the Houston Chronicle, won with a photo entitled "The Panhandle".

The top-notch photographer took numerous shots here during Canyon Days last summer.

He is married to the former Martha Low.

TRAVEL TIDBIT: Tyler, Texas — "The City of Roses" has the Azalea Trails and Spring Flower Show 10 days in late March and early April to herald the arrival of spring.

Some 75 home gardens are open to the public.

More than 35,000 rosebushes in nearly 400 varieties are at their floral peak from April through October at the Municipal Rose Garden (It is one of the nation's largest).

The Texas Rose Festival is held five days in October. Check with the Chamber of Commerce there for details.

VIP RECIPE FIND: Mrs. Bryan Poff serves this recipe often for guests or at family mealtime. It's also one you can serve during the holidays. "This is good for left-over turkey," the state representative's wife noted.

ENMU Downs Buffalo Track Team Saturday

West Texas State set a trio of school records Saturday, but Eastern New Mexico University used its strong depth to take a 89-45, track victory on the Buffalo track.

Only one of the school records came on a winning effort. Carl Brown ran the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.2 to break a one-year old record, held by present teammate Randy Thomas. Thomas ran the highs in 14.3.

Tracy Dickson, Lockney junior, ran the 440 in 48.0, breaking his own record of 48.4, set last year. Eastern's Sam Yavala won the quarter in a new ENMU school mark of 47.2.

The Buffalo sprint relay of Jesse Lethridge, Carl Brown, Gary Goodin and Lee Lewis ran 41.4, but that was one-tenth of a second slower than Eastern's winning effort. The 41.4 breaks the old WTSU mark, set two springs ago.

Thinclads Finish Fifth In Loveland

The Canyon High thinclads placed fifth in the Loveland track meet held Saturday.

Premier sprinter John Hoover was not able to compete in the meet due to a muscle injury suffered in practice.

Chip Van Pelt placed second in the discus with a heave of 141-6, while Gary Bednorz finished third in the high jump with a 5-11 leap. Bednorz is a 5-8 sophomore.

The sprint relay team, consisting of Steve Williams, Baby Ratliff, Bill Moore and Kent Zevely finished third with a 45.8 clocking. The mile relay squad placed fifth with a 3:38 timing. That team was Zevely, John Upshaw, Williams and Ratliff.

passed to see if they are working. Sanders stated he was against busing for two reasons. First, he said, busing leads to re-segregation and secondly, busing takes the system away from the primary goal of a first class education for everyone.

Sanders said he believed the American government must do a better job of managing. "One of the greatest talents in this country is our management ability and we haven't been putting it to use in our government," Sanders noted.

Sanders stated he decided to make the race for the Senate because he thought he was qualified and Texas was not receiving the best representation from Rep. John Tower.

He said he did not believe Tower had been very attentive. "He is not heard from but every six years and his attendance record is dismal," Sanders stressed.

Sanders said the Congressional Quarterly showed Towers' absence rate to be 47 per cent.

Sanders said Tower also does not have a record of accomplishment. "I haven't been able to see that legislative or policy wise, he has had any effect," Sanders noted.

The candidate explained his three objections to Yarborough were that he is divisive, "he has a tendency to find a problem, pass it along, spend some money and go on" and Yarborough relies on the federal government as the exclusive problem solver for everything.

Sanders said he tried not to label himself as a liberal or conservative but that he is more conservative than Yarborough. Sanders also stated he was in favor of the depletion allowance for oil.

land. If suit is approved by the school board, the tax attorney then writes a letter to the person and gives a period of time to pay the taxes or make arrangements to pay, Kuykendall stated.

Kuykendall said some people had come to the office and he has made arrangements to pay their taxes monthly so as not to cause any hardship.

If no action is received after the first letter from the attorney, he writes a second letter notifying the person of a suit if the taxes are not paid.

If the school district sues, the attorney must notify the other taxing units concerned and they are required to join in the suit in order to collect their share of the taxes.

The district pays the tax attorney 15 per cent of the taxes collected, Kuykendall said. This is the legal minimum. Of the $99,536 collected through the attorney, about $15,000 was paid to him.

Kuykendall said when the taxes are placed on the delinquent roll, one and one-half per cent interest is charged increasing one and one-half per cent each month through June. Three and one-half per cent is added in July plus one-half per cent each month for the rest of the year.

For each succeeding year a straight six per cent interest is charged, according to Kuykendall.

get bids for lowering the ceiling in the district court room in the courthouse.

The commissioners also discussed the possibility of replacing the air-conditioning in the court room. The commissioners agreed to discuss the air-conditioning further after receiving bids on the ceiling.

There was some discussion of the merit of continuing to make costly repairs on the old courthouse. Commissioner John Fulgenzi said, "We keep putting money into the building and get to the point where we need to abandon the whole building."

Commissioner Bill Butler made the statement that that point was about 15 years away.

Carl Baker, county road superintendent, discussed the purchase of equipment to asphalt county roads. The commissioners asked Baker to present a complete economic profile on the cost of the county operating its own equipment.

The court agreed that the cost of the extra men to operate the equipment and maintenance cost on the equipment should be included when comparing cost of the county operated road building and hiring another company to do the paving.

In other action, the court accepted a bid from Pitney Bowes of $1,784, with trade-in for a new postage machine for the courthouse.

countered, the site probably would be abandoned.

"I make my living off you people and I still think I am fortunate to be practicing in Canyon," the veterinarian went on.

"Dr. Markham is a fine man and I would just like for him to know that we all really appreciate him," declared Mrs. Gene Noel, whose husband farms in the vicinity of the proposed site.

south of the motor inn, when they saw smoke coming from the second story.

"I never saw anything burn so fast," Carter described. "It took six minutes for the roof to fall in from the time we reported the fire."

Edna Bayless, 15, was working in the Cowboy Grocery, also south of the blaze, when she saw the smoke. "The smoke started on the west side and before we could call the fire department the wind caught it and the building was burning."

Lester Nixon was in the grocery when he saw the smoke and he called in an alarm.

Alfred Bayless was working in the grocery and he described the fire saying "the smoke started up, and then the wind hit it and took the flames and spread them over the entire building."

The sparks blew over and caught onto the second building (east side).

Wilkins, Jr., arrived on the scene as the fire reached its peak. "It took me 23 years to do this," the young owner lamented. He said he was uncertain of his insurance coverage, on the motor inn.

Construction began on Thanksgiving Day last November and was to be completed for the summer tourist trade.

Sparks from the intense fire flew over the Hunsley Hill residential section and the only damaged reported was a small hole in the home owned by Col. J.S. Lawrence at 5 Bramblewood Lane. Mrs. Lawrence said her husband and a neighbor doused the fire before heavy damage could be done.

"It is a terrible thing for Canyon," Hunsley said Wednesday morning as he surveyed the smoking ruins.

Manufacturer To Visit Canyon

The inventor and manufacturer of a lubricant, Dri-Slide, will be in Canyon Sunday and Monday to discuss the possibility of placing "a major warehouse installation" here.

L.G. (Buck) Myers, the president of Dri-Slide, Inc., Fremont, Mich., plans to build a warehouse in Texas to serve as the center of a five-state distribution area, including Texas, New Mexico, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Oklahoma, according to Charles W. Parks, 2613 13th Ave.

Parks used the lubricant while serving in the U.S. Navy in Vietnam. His father, Charles E. Parks, is representing Dri-Slide here.

The federal General Services Administration has recently authorized use of the lubricant by government agencies and the military, but it was planned chiefly for industrial use.

Advisory Board
To Help Program

A Social Work Advisory Board, composed of social service specialists from Amarillo, has been organized to assist West Texas State University's new social work program.

J.B. Brannen, executive director of Family Service, was named chairman.

Dr. Hubert W. Oppe, head of the WTSU sociology department, told the organizational meeting of the board the social work program was inaugurated during the current spring semester.

He said 61 students list social work as their major field of study and that 79 students were enrolled in social work courses.

Oppe also said there is a sequence diploma available to professional social workers who do not want to complete the requirements necessary for the social work degree.

This summer students will be placed in various social work agencies for an internship to complete the requirements for a Bachelor of Arts Degree in social work, he said.

"This field training will give students a chance to develop experience in the field in which he is interested and will be useful in social work," Oppe added.

Although the students will be working in the agencies, they will also be there to learn, he said. The field training probably will be used only in the summer and spring semesters, he added.

Oppe said that $8,000 will be available for social work scholarships next fall.

The board, which will meet again May 8, decided its principal function will be to advise on curriculum and student placement.

A Social Work Club will be formed on campus for those students interested in social work.

Other board members include
Don Abernathy, Psychiatric Pavilion of Northwest Texas
Hospital; Argus Burnett, Texas
Panhandle Community Action
Corporation; Ernest Clark, Panhandle Regional Planning Commission; Ray Dunavant,
State Department of Public Welfare; Evelyn Flaherty, Veterans Administration Hospital; Don Meyers, State Department of Public Welfare; Joel Reed, Veterans Administration Hospital;
Frank Reyes, Catholic Family
Service; and Maj. Robert Short, Salvation Army.

Netters Sweep Tourney

West Texas State University, led by the strong play of number one man Paul Tobin, swept past four opponents this past weekend to win the third annual WTSU Team Tennis Tournament.

The Buffaloes won the tournament for the second consecutive year and are now one year away from retiring the traveling trophy.

Tobin was undefeated in singles play during the tournament. His top win was a 6-4, 6-4, decision over Josef Sole of Oral Roberts in Friday night's indoor

Story Not Correct

A story published in the Canyon News March 9 concerning the Canyon Girls Eagles indoor track meet was incorrect.

The articles stated that the Canyon Girls were the hosts of the tournament. It should have read that the 'West Texas State women's track team and the women's physical education majors sponsored and hosted that meet.

matches, played in the WTSU Activities Center.

Other Buffalo singles players and their records are Mike Bolton (7-3), John Phillips (7-3), Dale Corbin (8-3), Steve Bailey (8-1) and Joe Carrick (6-0).

Eagle Netters Squeeze By Perryton 6-5, Here

The Canyon Eagle tennis squad slipped past the Perryton netters 6-5 in a team match held on the West Texas State campus Saturday.

"We really improved," said V.J. Duncan tennis coach. "I guess we will really see just how much we improved this weekend when we go to Perryton for their tourney. Dumas, Perryton, Stratford, Canadian and some Oklahoma teams will be there."

In the number one boys singles slot Canyon's Brian Stoker lost 8-10, 4-6 to Timmons, but in the number two singles Stoker whipped Jones 8-1 in a pro set.

Roy Beghtel whipped Thompson 6-3, 7-5; Ben Richardson ripped Stalings 6-1, 6-2; but Mike Oppe and Dan Collier lost to Dendy and Roberts 3-6, 6-2 and 0-6 and 3-6, 1-6 respectively.

In the three girls singles matches Jodi Hefley romped Loflino of Perryton 6-1 and 6-4, while Jodi Hefley beat Schomaker in a pro set 8-3. In the only girls singles match Canyon lost. Knight topped Suzanne Tenorio 2-6, 6-2, 2-6. Stoker and Collier teamed up to whip Roberts and Dendy 9-7, but Richardson and Beghtel dropped a match to Stallings and Jones 8-10.

In girls doubles Hefley and Tenorio topped Fletcher and Loflino 6-4, 6-8, 6-4.

Also competing in the tourney for Canyon were Marty Wydick, Jo Anna Beagle and Patty Lovelady.

WT Baseballers Win Five Games

West Texas State's baseball team took on a seven-game road trip in four days and came out of it with a respectable 5-2 record to push its season standard to 7-3.

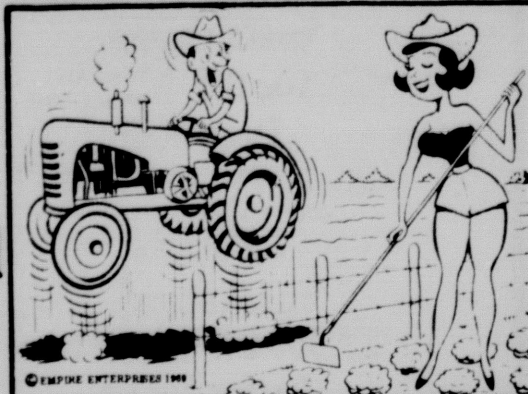

The Buffaloes of coach Bob Sloan now take a break until next week when they travel to Albuquerque to face the University of New Mexico in a pair of games, March 23-24.

West Texas swept a three-game series from the University of Texas at El Paso, 9-2, 5-1 and 6-5. The Buffaloes split in a pair of doubleheaders with the New Mexico State Aggies.

29 Attend Brotherhood Breakfast

BY MARY NEAL HENRY

FAY HAND and Wayne Pearson have filed for the two positions on the school board. Incumbents O.H. Rahlfs and Ben Boston are also up for election. Ben Boston filled the unexpired term of Sonny McNeill.

EDDIE WALTERS is home since Monday. He broke his leg (three bones in five places) on Friday when he stepped off the tractor. He made it fine the first time, but he looked up and he had left his cab windows open so he crawled back up to close them and when he got off the second time, he landed on a piece of water hose or pipe or something the cattle had kicked up there and it threw him. (And it hadn't rained yet. Don't guess he needed to shut those windows.) Foster Parker and Betty took him to Canyon and he was transferred to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo and Betty said that Foster almost gave out holding those wet x-rays all the way up there. C.E. Hayes, went, too, so they had lots of help. Eddie was in the room with a Glen Mackey from Spearman who suffered a head injury after being thrown from a horse. They visited so much they didn't even have time for TV.

BE SURE AND GO and vote. This is a privilege and a duty and one not to be abused. Someone said last week, I forgot to mention that Bob Pulsipher is running for city commissioner along with Lloyd Rahlfs and incumbent Lloyd Venhaus. I told them to read the back issues of the paper. I had, too, mentioned Bob.

BY THE WAY, if you aren't getting the Canyon News, call me. I'll be more than happy to turn in your subscription for you. And I'll print anything printable.

I AGREE WITH Anna Bee (who writes for the Tulia Herald) that Happy is getting good news coverage. But have you noticed the lack of school news in the papers? I would like to see a lot more school news and know what is happening in the Happy School System. The public should care and should care to know. When Mrs. Moudy taught us, she also held a journalism class and we made up our own page and wrote all the news just as it appeared in the Happy paper. We enjoyed doing this together and everything and it appeared just like that. I learned more than I've displayed in this column. But I was told that I could make it as it is and so I chose to write it this way.

TWENTY-NINE MEN attended the Brotherhood breakfast at the Baptist Church last week. The Methodist were their guest and so not all were Baptist, but that is a good number. Sam Williams was the chief cook that morning I hear and the food was good. The men washed their own dishes and enjoyed the morning and the fellowship. Our song director Sunday morning was Freddy Bailey from Wayland and originally from Friona. He brought a friend, Danny Quisenberry, another sophomore at Wayland. We had the greatest number we've had in Sunday School in years, even worthy of John Frank's announcing it and giving special mention to two classes.

JAN IRLBECK entertained

the young bridge club in her home with luncheon and an afternoon of bridge last Thursday. Turkey casserole, green bean casserole, jello salad, scalloped potatoes, hot rolls, pound cake and whipping cream was the menu enjoyed by Sara Tiry, Jeanne Johnson, Judy Shipman, Alice Womack, Dottie Foster, Skip Simons, and Billie Pearson filled in for Mary Johnson.

EVELYN DOWD, Viola Buchanan, Ruth Sims and I went to Plainview Saturday morning to the practice of the Eastern Star School to be held March 20 and 21. We were through by noon and ate lunch in the Holiday Inn.

SATURDAY EVENING was Ladies Night Out by the Happy Jaycees. The group enjoyed Mexican food and a social evening. Those enjoying the evening were Skip and Larry Simons, Joy and Norman Freeman, Donna and Dean Bryan, Kay and Vincent Venhaus, Jeanne and Ronnie Johnson, Mary and Duane Stubblefield, LaVenna and Eugene Jackson, Lynn and Chris Ritter, Della and Lloyd Venhaus, Sara and George Tiry, Dottie and Dick Foster, Tom and I, and A.J. Malone.

LOUISE WHITE and Hope Wilson attended the wedding of Louise's niece, Janice Hardaway, who married Larry Ardun Ducky on Saturday in Abilene. Janice' father is a Methodist minister in Lubbock.

NORMAN FREEMAN and Dick Foster attended a work forum in Vega on Thursday of last week. Ninety-one persons from 12 clubs attended.

BETTY, ELBERN, Amy and Jana Wallace recently attended the wedding of their daughter and sister, Mary, in Lubbock. Mary was the bride of Ronald James Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Standley Blythe. Both Mary and Ronald are employed in Lubbock and plan to make Lubbock their home. We wish them every happiness. Bob and Patsy Christenson also attended the wedding.

CLYDE AND JUNE Hancock are back from their trip to Acapulco. Haven't been able to talk to June.

THE PIONEER SEED and Harman-Toles sponsored a steak supper at Al's on Tuesday evening of last week. Thirty-nine attended this meeting and listened to Jim Higdon, Pioneer agronomist and Sales Manager, Jim Lindsey, Dick Rallsback and George Tiry were my informers.

I ATTENDED THE School Forum last Thursday night held during Public School Week and then visited the grade school classrooms. Mrs. Vivian Wesley first welcomed us to school and each of the 12 teachers in the elementary grades outlined their class room activities, their goals and explained their methods. About 60 parents attended.

LAST WEEK-END, the Volunteer Firemen sponsored

the couples volleyball tournament. First place trophy was won by Judy and Tuffy Thompson, Ed Wright, Dixie McManigal, Vivian Woods, and Bill Whitlow. George and Sara Tiry, Jo Bob and Linda Jones, and Marcela Shaw and Mike Starker won the second place trophy; and third place trophy was won by Traverne and Richard Vermeire, Jo Ann and Kenneth Weavers, and Connie and Reggie Johnson. Lee Donnell and Elburn Wallace were doing some pretty fair refereeing while I was there. They were awake.

HAPPY ELEVATOR COMPANY and Robert Lee sponsored a bar-b-que dinner for DeKalb on Thursday of last week at Al's. Thirty-four attended this meeting and heard Carroll Lakcey, district manager for DeKalb, speak on increasing your profit. These farmers should have been well fed last week.

THE BIGGEST NEWS of last week was that Copus Boyd came home on Tuesday afternoon. Copus is a very active person and it is so much easier to do something for most of us than to tell someone else how and he is one of these people. But Copus will have to slow his mind down to keep pace with other people's feet for a time. We hear he is doing really well.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON, a total of $570 dollars in prize money was awarded to several winners of two jackpot ropings. The first average was won by Cline Stewart and Kenneth Ray of Pampa with a total of 57.7 on four head; second went to Glen Green and David Hill of Hereford with a time of 70.0 and third to Tuffy Thompson and Tom Henry with 74.7. First Go was won by Cowboy Johnson and Tom Henry and Glen Green and Jim Monroe. Second Go, Cowboy Johnson (Dimmitt) and Glen Green (Hereford) and Wade Lewis of Hereford and Tuffy Thompson. Third Go went to Jim Monroe and Glen Green and Rex Prather of Post and Tuffy Thompson. Fourth to Tuffy Thompson and Tom Henry and Rex Prather and Tuffy Thompson. The fastest steer of the afternoon was team roped in 8.5 seconds by Jim Monroe and Glen Green, both of Hereford. The average on two head was won by Cowboy Johnson and Glen Green with 24.1 seconds; second, Tommy Blasingame and Sparky Stephens, both of Hereford; third, Tuffy Thompson and Tom Blasingame. The two go 'rounds were won by Wade Lewis and Tuffy Thompson with 8.3 and Sparky Stephens and Tom Blasingame with 8.5. Second in the go's went to Cowboy Johnson and Glen Green with 10.7 and Tom Blasingame and Sparky Stephens with 10.1. It was a dirty and windy day.

THE CHURCH BUS took a whole load of children and Brother and Mrs. Heil and Joyce and Dick Rallsback to the W.T. Field House Monday evening to attend the Jesus Movement. Two rock groups played and everyone sang; testimonies were given; and the pastor, who was from Sunset Strip in California and had opened the first Jesus Night Club only 5 or 6 months ago, spoke on FREEDOM. He told these young people one never has freedom until they have discipline and self control. My Sheri really thought it was great. (That is today's language.)

HAPPY JAYCEES had a big attendance at their regular Monday night meeting to elect officers. Reports are that it was the greatest meeting they have ever had. Two new members were added, Chris Ritter and Foster Parker. Norman Freeman, president, conducted this meeting. Candidates for offices had campaign managers, campaign booths, give-aways, nominating and seconding speeches and campaign speeches. Run-offs were required in every phase of the election. Voting required about three hours.

NEW OFFICERS FOR the ensuing year are: President, Lloyd Rahlfs; First Vice President, George Tiry; Second Vice President, Mike Starker; Secretary, Ronnie Johnson; Treasurer, Vincent Venhaus; Director, Norman Freeman, Dean Bryan, and Dick Foster. Pat George, a Stage Vice President and a Tulia Jaycee attended the meeting.

ALFRED BUECKER, president of the Randall County Farmers Union, called a meeting to order Monday night in Canyon. A small group attended the meeting where plans were completed for the Texas Farmers Union Spring Dinner and Dance on April 8, 1972, at 7:30 p.m. in the Howard-Johnson's East. Guest speaker for the event will be Barefoot Sanders. Ralph Yarbrough had another speaking engagement on this date. A Farmers Union member will be contacting you to sell you tickets to this event.

A two-year-old in this neighborhood became bored this Tuesday morning and crawled under the house with his dog. All you mothers of two year olds may think, this funny, but Rowdy's mother, Helen, had to go get him when he couldn't find his way out. He has her fooled, he probably just wasn't ready to come out. Ha! Life is never boring.

I PASSED MY neighbors on the way to town Tuesday morning — they were moving. Sad day! We never counted the eggs, cups of stuff, etc. anymore than we counted the ice cubes in the summertime. But it was handy to have a neighbor like the Wilsons. We'll miss them.

See Ya!

MRS. BECKY HALL

Cut Decides Method For Cooking Meats

BY BECKY HALL

Cooking meat properly improves flavor, changes its color and destroys organisms.

The two methods of cookery are Moist heat and Dry heat. The quality of meat from an animal ranges from tough to tender according to the part of the animal from which the cut was taken. The muscle fiber in the neck and legs become large and strong through exercise and are held together by a relatively large portion of connective tissue and gristle. In contrast the tenderloin which lies under the backbone has small, short fibers and very little connective tissue.

The flavor of meat comes in part from soluble substances known as "extractives". The larger percentage of extractives is found in the tougher cuts of meat. Even if tenderloin steak and shoulder of beef were the same price, the shoulder would be the better choice for a stew because it is more flavorful. Much of the flavor that is associated with meat is developed in the process of cooking. The amount and distribution of fat affects the richness of meat juices. The richness of flavor of some of the less tender cuts, even the leaner cuts, is due to the fat between the muscles.

Tender cuts of meat command a higher price because of their attractive appearance and the speed and ease with which they can be cooked. Proper cooking improves the appearance, flavor, and aroma of the meat, and, at the same time, retains its juiciness. Steak should be seared quickly in a hot pan or under the broiling unit and then cooked at a lower temperature. Searing browns the fat and extractives on the cut surface, thereby developing aroma and flavor, the the losses in evaporation causes dryness if the cooking is continued at a high temperature. Since salt interferes with the browning, it is not added until after the tender cut has been seared.

Less tender cuts of meat must be treated in some way to break up the connective tissue or must be cooked in water until the connective tissue is softened, as in making stew. Hamburger steak illustrates breaking up the connective tissue by grinding; Swiss steak illustrates the breaking of the fibers by pounding. Soaking of a chuck steak in vinegar, lemon juice, or tomato for several hours may make it sufficiently tender to broil.

The choice of method of cookery depends on the choice of the cut of meat. Less tender cuts of meat offer high nutritive value at low cost.

Gene Howe News

CHS Tennis Team Wins

BY PAULINE HEFLEY

WE'RE LATE GETTING THIS to you, but a hearty congratulations are sent to Matt Hanson and Cindy Williams for being chosen the junior class favorites. Matt and Cindy are both former Gene Howe students and obviously live in our area. Matt and Cindy, we are sure proud of y'all and excuse the oversight last week.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Alma Perkins.

A BIG CONGRATULATIONS to Jodi Hefley and Coach V.J. Duncan, and all the others on the Canyon tennis team in their recent match with Perryton. Our Jodi won both her singles matches and she and Suzanne Tenario. In Canyon proper, won their doubles match. Wipee...and speaking of tennis, congrats to that David Kent and his good guys...Did you catch the fine tournament this last weekend. Wow, we have some superstars and they go by the names of Paul Tobin, Mike Bolton, John Phillips, Dale Corbin, Steve Bailey, Joe Carrick and John Mickey. What a track record the tennis team continues to make from West Texas State. We can all share in that pleasure and pride. David, you just keep doing your thing and hopefully one of these days our Canyon School will have such an eminent record in tennis right there in the same town.

A GET WELL WISH to Darla Campbell who has been under the weather with Scarletina. Darla, hope you are soon well and am sure you will be under the good care of mommie Darlene.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Rose Mary Ramaekers.

OUR SINCERE SYMPATHY is extended to the Bob Sellers family in the death of Gwyn's father, Mr. Polson.

WELCOME HOME FROM THE hospital to Workman Phillips. Understand he is feeling much better and already back to work.

I NEVER CEASE TO BE amazed at the diversity of talent that one finds in the upper echelon of the working world. Recently your own Gene Howe resident Norman Cummins, who is the vice president of transportation for Missouri Beef Packing, Inc., left the upper elevation of Management and tooted up to Friona and spent his time pulling shrouds (in case you don't know what that is — a shroud is a protective cover that is put over the dead). It seems the motivation for the jaunt up to Friona was the strike. But apparently everything is back in order and Mr. Cummins is back now to his Amarillo office doing his own thing. (Reminds one of the telephone strikes when we get to hear a male voice say "operator" — rather refreshing for a change, eh what?)

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to James Hester.

A GET WELL WISH to Harvey Bates, the father of Mrs. Bill "Suzy" Dupree, who is in the Highland General Hospital in Pampa. We surely hope you get along just fine and are soon home, Mr. Bates, and fit as a fiddle. Mr. Bates resides in White Deer as many of you may know.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Tyron Walker.

BY THE TIME YOU GET this Matt Hanson will already be down at Texas A&M in College Station. He is going with one of the faculty members, Mrs. Treasure Brasher, to take some national merit tests. Lots of luck to you, Matt. Speaking of the Hansons, understand they talked to Andy up at the Air Force Academy and he is doing fine and will be home ere long for the Easter Holidays.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to our spiffy little friend, Leo Estopare.

OUR SINCERE SYMPATHY is extended to the Bill Halls in the death of Bill's Mother who resided in El Paso.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY to Eugene and Phyllis Podzemny.

WELCOME BACK TO God's Country to Mr. and Mrs. Don Hayden. As you probably know, Don is the son of John Hayden and has been discharged from the armed forces. Don is married to the former Janice May of Canyon and what a milestone to have given your time to the service and now you can resume civilian life...A real welcome home and thanks.

A GET WELL WISH to Mrs. Benny "Elfa" Turner who is still under the weather...Now Elfa, you get well.

A HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO our friend Raydelle Palmer — I won't tell you how old Raydelle is, but she sure is getting good mileage. Don't you agree?

BY THE BYE, if you are going out of town over the Easter Holidays, be sure and let me know where you went when you come back and be sure and vote for somebody "absentee" before you go.

NOW PHONE ME YOUR latest...376-9853 or 352-2089.

BORROWED... Ethics, the father told his son, "are important to everyday life. For example, today an old friend paid me back a loan with a new hundred dollar bill. As he was leaving, I discovered he'd given me two bills stuck together. Immediately a question of Ethics arose: Should I tell your mother?".....pmh

WE STOCK BOTH FAST AND SLOW SELLERS

Recent news stories told how supermarkets and discount firms are telling manufacturers: "Sell us only your fast sellers. We are weeding out all others." Their reason is that the small amounts sold of slow sellers are not profitable.

This is true, but sometimes slow selling products can be very important to the persons who need them. There are hundreds of them in our pharmacy that sell only about a dozen of each a year. We buy only a quarter of a dozen at a time and re-order when they are sold. Our reputation is to have whatever you ask for. If we don't have your favorite, tell us.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

WT Announces

A family of four may watch an entire season of exciting West Texas State University football for $24.

University athletic officials have come up with a "Family Plan" for buying season tickets in several parts of Frank Kimbrough Memorial Stadium. In addition to the "Family Plan" sections, there will be other sections for general admission, as well as the regular reserved bench and chair seats.

The "Family Plan" and general admission tickets will be located in the end sections of the stadium — in sections H and N on the east side, and sections A and G on the west side.

A family of four (two adults and two children) may purchase a "Family Plan" ticket for $24 — $1.50 per person for each of the Buffaloes' four home games this fall. General admission tickets, sold on a game-by-game basis, will be $2.50 for adults and $1 for students and children. The family tickets are located on the top half of the stadium in sections H and N on the stadium's east side. There are 2,172 seats in those two sections.

General admission tickets, of which there will be 2,372, are in sections H and N, below the center, and above the center of the stadium on the west side, in sections A and G.

The remaining bench seats will sell for $16 each for the season, a saving of $1 per game if purchased for the season. Regular reserved bench seats are $5, but the season ticket cost is $4.

Chair seats will remain $5 for the season, of $6 per game. With four home games in 1972, each season chair ticket will sell for $20.

Athletic Director Gene Mayfield and athletic business manager Wayne Ray obtained permission for the new ticket prices from university officials. The endzone seating, which has consisted of bleacher seats for children, will be removed. There will be seats inside the stadium for 19, 107. Should there be a sellout, the endzone seats can be replaced.

Lower Grid Ticket Prices

West Texas State opens its 1972 home schedule Sept. 23 against Colorado State. Other home games are Sept. 30 against Lamar, Oct. 14 against New Mexico State and Oct. 28 against Wichita State. All of the games will start at 7:30 p.m.

"Fans may start ordering their season tickets now," said Ray. "We are sending letters and forms to season ticket holders of past years and they will be given the option of renewing their regular seats. We will keep any orders until the season tickets are printed and arrive at this office."

Season tickets may be ordered by writing to the Athletic Ticket Office, Box 4, W.T. Station, Canyon, Texas, 79015.

Boys' Choir members from the junior high are to offer "Veni Jesu," "Goodbye, Mourner," and "At the Foot of Yonder Mountain."

The mixed choir from the junior high school will sing "Farewell, My Love," "Sigh No More, Ladies," and "Never Tell Love."

Metro Grant Before Smith

A $76,340 grant for second-year funding for the Metro Unit was recommended this week by the Criminal Justice Council Executive Committee.

Funding for the organized crime intelligence unit is subject to final approval by Gov. Preston Smith.

The Metro Unit is jointly operated with men from the cities of Canyon and Amarillo, counties of Potter and Randall and West Texas State University.

Primary purpose of the unit is to gather information pertaining to organized crime and to process this information in an effort to control organized crime.

Under the new grant a comprehensive filing system would be established and maintained and information shared with the Organized Crime Intelligence Unit at the Texas Department of Public Safety in Austin.

The Metro unit agencies will be required to furnish $82,377 in-kind match consisting of salaries paid by the agencies.

Alvin Morris Runs 5 Miles

Every man in the army's 3D Civil Affairs Group (Airborne) at Ft. Clayton in the Canal Zone, can or soon will be able to run five miles without stopping.

Maj. Alvin B. Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Morris, 1003 Fourth Ave., can do it. Recently he participated in an arduous 53-mile relay run across the Isthmus of Panama. Starting at Coco Solo on the Atlantic Side, Maj. Morris and his fellow paratroopers splashed into the waters of the Pacific Ocean on the other side.

The five-mile continuous running goal established in the group's physical training program is especially strenuous in the scorching sun of Panama. Few of the men could do it when the program began but now most of them can run five miles or more.

Maj. Morris is an operations and training officer with the group. He holds the Army Commendation Medal, four awards of the Bronze Star Medal and the Air Medal.

His wife, Lynne, lives at Ft. Gulick, Canal Zone, where he was last stationed.

You might just ask the new owners if they agree! I enjoy reading about the happenings in your neighborhood.

CONGRATULATIONS TO Julie Brantley, the new Miss Canyon. Our city will be well represented by you, I know.

Best wishes to you in the coming year as you reign as Miss Canyon. The Pageant was wonderful and exciting and a big thanks to the Canyon Study Club for sponsoring it all.

OUR NEIGHBORHOOD SURELY has a full week on the calendar for celebrations. Today, March 16, Judd Wilhite has a birthday. Mr. and Mrs. R.H. Sims Jr. will celebrate their wedding anniversary on March 17. Lee Don Jones is the birthday boy on March 18. Lynn Bowes celebrates her birthday Sunday, March 19. On Monday, March 20, Julie Coffman and her dad, Bud Coffman will be the birthday people. Mr. and Mrs. Alton Reeder will be celebrating their wedding anniversary March 21. And Carla Brashears is the birthday girl March 22. A very happy birthday to each of you, and congratulations to the two couples with wedding anniversaries.

WE HAVE SEVERAL IN

OUR community who had grandparents to pass from this life recently. Jearene Cartwright's grandfather, Mr. Ernest Goetz of Haskell, Texas and her great grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Hamilton of Sherman, Texas. Betty Hall's grandmother, Mrs. T.M. Spraberry of Ravana, Arkansas. Glenne Anderson's grandmother, Mrs. Mattie Vandergriff of Canyon, and my own grandmother, Mrs. Nellie Roberson of Amherst. They had all lived long, happy and useful lives.

MR. AND MRS. HERBERT HALL brought his mother and father from Vernon home with them to stay a few days. Saturday, they took them to Lubbock to visit with another son and his family living there.

MRS. LILLIAN SCOTT comes over from Hereford often to be with her granddaughter and family, the Don Cartwrights. We do want her to feel like one of us out here.

REBA GRIFFIN WENT WITH her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Griffin and family of Olton to the Denver, Colorado area over the weekend. They toured many interesting places and visited with the Murray family in Aurora. Reba says they had a real good time and the weather was just beautiful.

MR. AND MRS. SHERMAN JONES and Lee Don drove down to Shreveport, Louisiana Friday night to attend a quarterly board meeting of the Indoor Sports Club. This club is organized for the physically handicapped. Eight members of the Amarillo Chapter were present. Approximately 40 attended from the Texas chapters and the Shreveport chapter. They had lots of excitement coming home (like car trouble) but still reported a real good trip.

GUESTS IN THE MARRY Leith home Saturday were Wanda's parents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Luedecke of Pampa. In the afternoon the Doby family from Amarillo came out.

THERE WAS LOTS OF action in the Grover Booth household last weekend. Franklin was home from Wichita Falls and brought an airman friend, Steve Busken with him. They will be graduating at Shepard Air Force Base this Friday night. They also brought Jessie's sister, Mrs. Mozelle McMillen from Lakeview. Other guests were from Shallowater, Mr. and Mrs. Clois Cobb, Jr., Tracy and Deann. They went to the Bridal Fair in Amarillo where Susan was doing the commentary for a style show.

A HAPPY ST. PATRICKS Day to you all tomorrow. Hope the luck of the Irish be with you!

Arson Suspected Cause In $350,000 Motel Fire

BY BENNY TURNER
AND MARGO WILLIAMS

Arson is suspected in the $350,000 fire which roared through the nearly complete Lexington Motor Inn and threatened palatial Hunsley Hills Tuesday night.

Fire Chief Jack Jennings said he definitely believes arson was the cause of the blaze that was reported about 6:30 p.m.

"No doubt it was arson...it burned too fast too quick. We had the fire under control in about an hour and 10 minutes," Jennings added, but by that time the structure, which was nearly 90 per cent complete, was a total loss.

Eyewitness reports said the roof of the 72-unit building began to collapse approximately six minutes after the blaze was reported.

Fire marshal Glen Metcalf said a state fire marshal has been called to investigate the fire, and he is expected to arrive in Canyon late this week or early next week.

"I will go ahead with the investigation on gathering reports from people, but I called the state marshal in to investigate the motel itself," Metcalf explained early Wednesday morning.

Metcalf said they would just have to go through the debris piece by piece and see if they could find any chemicals or containers. "We will also have to check the electrical appliances."

Several young boys were walking down U.S. 60 near Poole's Trailer Park just before the firemen arrived. One of the boys, Carol Ashley said he saw seven or eight people working on the roof of the motel.

"They jumped off the roof and just stood there for a minute. Then I saw smoke coming out of the third or fourth door on this side (west) of the building. I just saw a little bit of smoke. I don't know what happened to those fellows we saw," the youngster said.

B.C. Taylor, owner of a service station across the street from the structure, said he saw the smoke and drove to the building, but by the time he returned to call the fire department the building was ablaze. He reported seeing a red car drive away from the motor inn minutes before he spotted the smoke.

Eight units and 28 men of the Canyon Fire Department were pressed into service to fight the fire. The department's new snorkel was used throughout the fire fighting.

A brisk easterly wind gusting to 40 miles an hour at times hindered the fireman's efforts, but without the snorkel it wouldn't have made any difference, Jennings said. The snorkel, which is capable of dumping 1,000 gallons of water per minute on a fire, saved the section of the building that was left standing.

Zolon Wilkins, Jr., owner of the building, said he had no idea what started the fire, but no one had been authorized to be in or on the building at the time when the fire started.

His father Zolon Wilkins, Sr., of Dallas said this was the first major fire in any of the 15 Lexington Motor Inns, but construction would begin again on the Canyon motel as soon as possible. He added he was just sorry the insurance rates in Canyon would go up because of the fire.

Developer Arch Hunsley, who owned the land on which the building stands, said he talked with the older Wilkins immediately after the fire was reported and Wilkins said, "Go, go, go. We will build again."

Pete Pindle, husband of the assistant manager of the Cambridge House Apartment just east of the motor inn, said he dragged water hoses around to the west side of the apartments to be prepared to wet down the walls and roofing if the wind blew hot sparks across the street and onto the apartment building.

"The wind shifted and began blowing north, so we didn't have to wet down the building," Pindle declared as he eyed the raging fire.

Nig Carter, one of the first to see the fire, said fire trucks arrived on the scene within a minute after being called. Carter, Jimmy Burgan and Gary McRoberts were in the Cowboy Cafe. (See ARSON, page 5)

Canyon volunteer firemen fight a $350,000 fire that totally destroyed the Lexington Motor Inn Tuesday night, and fire chief Jack Jennings suspects arson in the cause of the blaze.

The motor inn was about 90 per cent completed, according to owner Zolon Wilkins, and he said the building cost was $400,000.

Cold Temps May Freeze Fruit Trees

Temperatures of freezing or slightly below freezing could kill the fruit crop of trees in Randall County, according to County Agent John Brazzil.

The average date for the last frost is between April 10 and April 15, Brazzil said, but the county has had the last freeze as late as May and as early as March.

The fruit trees are budding earlier this year than in the past several years because of the warmer weather and earlier spring, Brazzil reported.

The length of time the temperature stays below freezing could have an effect on the damage to the fruit crop as well as the development of the fruit.

Brazzil said trees are particularly sensitive to cold temperatures while budding but not so sensitive after the trees bear fruit.

For Rendering Firm

New Plant Site Sought

Dr. Joe Markham said he and his associates will probably look for another site for their proposed rendering plant as a result of a Tuesday night meeting protesting plans to build one just west of Randall County Feed Yard. Markham said this is the second time he has changed his plans for the site of the plant which he hopes will evolve into a dog food factory and possibly a tannery.

Some 40 persons attended the meeting Tuesday night at the country home of Dr. Tom Gerald who is leading the protest.

Proposed site for the rendering plant was about 150 yards east of the Gerald home.

Dr. Gerald acted as spokesman for the protesting group. He said objections are based on pollution, odor and devaluation of property if the plant were to go into operation.

"We believe that such a rendering plant for dead animals would create air and water pollution and it would surely cause devaluation of property for a considerable distance," Dr. Gerald went on.

Dr. Markham told the group that he is associated in the undertaking with Clay Cooper and

County Raises Ambulance Subsidies

Maintenance repairs on the Randall County courthouse and the asphalt road building business highlighted the commissioners court meeting Monday with commissioners asking for additional information on both subjects.

The court also raised the subsidy to LaGrone Ambulance Service and Metropolitan Ambulance Service by $40 a month.

LaGrone had requested a raise from $200 a month to $300 a month from the court.

The court requested Justice of the Peace W. A. (Bill) Wilson to Milton Morris, both of Canyon.

Markham said he thinks such a plant would render a service to Randall County since the carcasses of many dead animals now are being left to create a stench and pollution hazard.

He said he approached Dr. Gerald with an offer to buy land from the Amarillo dentist further from the Gerald summer home.

Dr. Markham told the group that he had asked for a private meeting with Dr. Gerald but had been unable to arrange one.

He said the plant would not cause an odor for more than a quarter mile and that the only possible health hazard would be encountered only if an animal died of anthrax were rendered in the plant. In this case, he said, some drastic measures might have to be taken.

Most of the people at the meeting seemed to agree with Dr. Gerald that the plant at the proposed site would create a nuisance and would be detrimental to property values.

"We had just hoped to get in under the umbrella of the feed yard and not have the smell noticed," Dr. Markham asserted.

Markham said that since so much opposition had been en-

Dr. Joe Markham spoke before protesting residents north of Canyon Tuesday night explaining his proposed rendering plant. Tom Gerald, left, was one of about 40 persons on hand to voice objection to the location of the plant. Markham said the group who proposed to build the plant will consider another location.

City Budget Public Hearing Is Tonight

Public hearing on the 1972-73 budget will be at 7 p.m. tonight in the Community Center, according to George Loudder, city manager.

The budget shows $662,245 in expenditures and $786,802 estimated in revenue with a debt service of $104,918. Loudder said the unencumbered balance will be $9,639.

He noted the largest expenditure under capital outlay will be approximately $68,000 for completion of the ground storage tank at the Umbarger water field.

"That will be almost half of the capital outlay," Loudder pointed out.

Other projects will include 60 blocks of seal coating under the paving program and all new asphalt around the square in (See CITY, page 5)

WTSU Spring Training To Open April 4

West Texas State University will open its spring training Tuesday, April 4, and will run through May 5.

The Buffaloes of Coach Gene Mayfield, with only nine offensive and eight defensive returning, will be looking at a big group of sophomores, a few red shirts and two junior college transfers.

The sophomores are coming up from a freshman team which is a result of coach Mayfield and his staff's first recruiting season. The Buff freshmen won three of four games, beating the Wichita and University of Texas El Paso freshmen and New Mexico Military Institute, a junior college. Their only loss was to the Tulsa freshmen.

District Gets Loan

Money, money everywhere, but not a drop to spend.

That's the situation facing the South Randall County Hospital District this week after they learned they have been offered $1.1 million from the Hill-Burton Loan Fund.

Hospital administrator Ray Grimes is scratching his head trying to find out just what the loan will mean to the local hospital district. But as of Wednesday the loan announcement remains a matter of confusion.

Last July, the district requested a grant from Hill-Burton to the tune of $800,000, with a secondary request for a loan. Grimes said he talked with the state health department in Austin Tuesday and they notified him the grant money was used up before Canyon was considered.

Last summer Randall County voters established the district and approved a bond issue of $800,000 to finance half of a proposed 50-bed hospital to be constructed in Canyon.

The present Neblett Memorial Hospital has been warned of losing its accreditation because of outdated construction, and an accreditation team will be in the city in early April to inspect the hospital. Last year a one-year approval was given.

Grimes said the loan has no meaning to the district board now, because "we do not know whether we can qualify for the loan."

The administrator said he has no idea about interest rates or guidelines surrounding the loan, and the board probably will not take action until further information is received from "some authority".

"We haven't done anything because we do not know if we can qualify or if the loan will be of value to us," he stressed.

He said he has checked with several hospital groups who received loan approval last month, but they had not received guidelines for the loan as of Tuesday.

"There is nothing we can do but wait and see what happens. It makes me feel strange to have something offered and I don't know what it is," Grimes declared.

Fite Listed Satisfactory

David Fite, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Fite, was listed in satisfactory condition Wednesday following surgery to remove part of his left lung.

The operation was performed at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo on Tuesday.

Sanders Would Withdraw Troops

Barefoot Sanders said in Canyon Monday if North Vietnam would release American prisoners of war he would bring American troops home immediately.

"We have fulfilled our commitment to South Vietnam," Sanders said. Sanders, a Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate, declared he would continue to supply South Vietnam but would send no additional troops.

Sanders stated he did not believe the U. S. has ever centered its negotiations on the prisoners of war and he believes an end to the war is negotiable.

"We have given them the wherewithal to support them, selves if they have the will to support themselves," Sanders declared.

Sanders added he supported a resolution now before the Senate to limit the power of the president to commit troops.

Sanders said he thought the Senate must reassert its influence in the area of foreign affairs. Sanders said the Senate's power had not been stolen but had been abdicated.

He explained Congress could assert its power by passage of a resolution limiting the president in foreign affairs, by the power of the purse and by follow-up investigations on the direction and progress of programs (See SANDERS, page 5)

BAREFOOT SANDERS

COVERING
FUMBLES
By Mike Jones

They enjoy visiting with each other. Neither ever hears anything that the other says, but each has a chance to have company while she talks to herself.

by Troy Martin

FROM THE

CANYON RIM

Two Democratic candidates for the US Senate have been in my office in the past week.

One was Barefoot Sanders, a major candidate, and the other was Tom Cartledge, of whom I hadn't heard until he arrived in town.

I'm not really expecting the third Democratic candidate to drop by. He, of course, is Ralph W. Yarborough, defeated two years ago in a re-election bid.

The former senator at 68 is trying again. He's been running for office since the mid-1930's.

In the primary I'll pick Barefoot. I'm reserving judgement on next fall when the Democrat will be pitted against Republican Incumbent John Tower, presently senior senator from Texas.

I like Barefoot personally because he is so friendly and accessible. I've approved of much of Tower's ideology but I've never liked him personally.

Sanders is friendly and outgoing while Tower is arrogant and I have found him unapproachable. When he visited the West Texas State University campus last fall I asked him a question about China just to get the ball rolling.

He turned on me and put me down with vehemence. I've written to him a couple of times about community problems. The only answer I have in my files is his reply in accepting a speaking engagement here in 1964.

His personality doesn't keep him from being a good senator and I may support him in November but I'll have to grit my teeth to vote for the self-centered little cuss in spite of the fact that I like his politics most of the time.

If Sanders does become senator he will have to educate himself on the issues. Although he has served as a US attorney I think he is naive in his stated plan for dealing with the communist world.

He says he would approve of a unilateral pull-out of American troops from Vietnam in return for an agreement for return of our POWs.

How can you horse trade when you've already given the other fellow all your horses?

He has no plan for forcing the return of our prisoners except an apparent faith that Hanoi will ultimately do the right thing on this question.

I think Barefoot needs to talk to the Finns, the Poles, the Czechs, the Hungarians and the Tibetans.

I like Barefoot's call for reasserting the power of Congress. Again I don't know how he hopes to bring this about. Most of the power in federal government has been sponged up by the executive and judiciary branches.

Barefoot could well have a mill stone around his neck in November. Either George McGovern or Ted Kennedy would be a real albatross for any Democratic Candidate in Texas.

Either of these men as Democratic standard bearer might even elect a Republican governor.

And Barefoot has already vowed he will support the Democratic nominee on the national ticket sight unseen.

I think this also is politically naive in a state that simply will not give its 26 electoral votes to George or Teddy.

As for Mr. Cartledge, who plans to walk across Texas or from Denton or some place to the Alamo to attract attention, he has two chances of getting elected — slim and none.

I'm predicting at this point that the 29½ year old ex-Marine captain will get less than 2 percent of the vote.

He charged that Tower is getting money from "big oil men."

I asked him to name two.

He couldn't.

He said he'd supply me with the names. I'm still waiting.

Of course, the senatorial campaign is going to pit me against one of my favorite people — Dr. Charles Townsend who will be supporting Yarborough again.

I never miss one of Dr. Townsend's religious lectures if I can help it. He is one of the best informed speakers I have ever heard.

I have been puzzled for years as to how such an otherwise fine and brilliant fellow could possibly show such poor judgement in picking a senatorial candidate.

Seriously, I appreciate Charles even in this. A man who believes in a candidate SHOULD support him.

...

Dr. Townsend is writing a book about Bob Wills. As an old Turkey boy, I knew him as Jim Bob when I was a little shaver.

Dr. Townsend tells me that Bob will be honored at some kind of festival next month at Turkey, home town of Bob Wills and country music.

Charity Ball Set

BY SUSAN DOLLE

THIS GERMAN COMMUNITY WILL celebrate the Wear-in of the Green St. Patrick's Day when the Umbarger Knights of Columbus help host the Bishop's Charity Ball Saturday night in St. Mary's Parish hall. Knights of Columbus members their wives and guests from over the Panhandle area will be in attendance.

HIS EXCELLENCY, Lawrence M. DeFalco, Bishop of Amarillo, will also attend. Proceeds from the evening will be given to the Bishop's Catholic charities within the Amarillo diocese; these charities include the Panhandle Children's Home and the Family Services office in Amarillo.

MANY LOCAL AND AREA businesses donate money and goods to cover the evening's expenses so that all the ball's proceeds are given to the charity project.

AT ITS REGULAR MEETING Tuesday night the Knights of Columbus elected delegates to their state convention in Fort Worth May 11-14. Ed Wieck and Anton Handing will represent this council with Jack Brandt and R.D. Friemel serving as alternates.

THE KNIGHTS OF Columbus has a bowling team which is going great guns this spring. Well into the last half of play, the young men now are in first place, playing with half-a-dozen other teams. The leagues play in the activities center at WTSU. Johnny Batenhorst serves as team captain. Assorted brothers and cousins help him — Charles, Harold, Ralph, and Leon Batenhorst are team members, as well as David Ehly.

Three Chemists Receive Grants

Three West Texas State University chemists are recipients of Robert A. Welch Foundation grants totaling $64,000 to support basic chemical research.

They are Dr. Gene Crowder, head of the chemistry department, Dr. Gene Carlisle and Dr. James Woodyard, both assistant professors.

The grants to West Texas State were among 150 totaling $4,199,000 awarded by the Welch Foundation to 32 educational institutions in Texas.

The $24,000 received by Carlisle is a new grant. He is studying the magnetic properties of polymetallic transition metal complexes. This research should yield a better understanding of metal to metal bonding, he says.

Crowder was awarded a renewal grant of $30,000, bringing to $88,000 the amount of research money awarded him since 1967 by the Welch Foundation.

His work with organic compounds containing fluorine atoms should lead to a better understanding of the forces between atoms within the molecules and should yield some qualitative information about molecular structure, Crowder says.

Woodyard also received a one-year renewal grant for $10,000. The funds will be used to study the stereochemistry of a certain class of compounds. The information obtained from studying some chemical reactions involving these compounds should permit the spacial relationship between atoms within the molecule to be determined, Woodyard says.

The Robert A. Welch Foundation was established in 1954 by the will of Robert Alonzo Welch of Houston who died in 1952.

The foundation has awarded more than $47 million to foster and encourage fundamental chemical research. It ranks 22nd in size among foundations of the world and third in Texas.

This marks the fifth time in 11 years that co-championships have been awarded in Missouri Valley Conference basketball. This year both Louisville and Memphis State finished the season with 12-2 marks. Louisville won a playoff Saturday by 10 points and will represent the MVC in the NCAA Midwest Regional Tournament.

The Associated Press ranks Louisville number four in the nation and Memphis State number 11, while United Press International ranks the Cardinals number six and the Tigers number nine.

Steve Davidson of WTSU was the MVC individual rebounding champ in the MVC this year with 420 caroms in 24 games. That was 56 more than Terry Benton of Memphis State, who played two more games that did Davidson. The Buffs led all of the MVC in rebounding with 1440.

After four championship events, Memphis State holds the Valley's all-sports lead with 36 ½ points. Drake is second with 28½. The Buffs are seventh with 16.

Tommy Bryant, WT sports information director, wonders what it will be like when the Buffs meet some of the top teams in the MVC basketball wars next year. "We were 3-4 against the bottom four teams in the Valley this year," he said, "and a couple of them beat us like a drum. Gosh 'O Friday, I wonder what the good teams in

Six Vote Absentee

Five voters had cast absentee ballots for the Canyon School Board election as of Wednesday morning and one absentee vote had been cast for the hospital board.

Conway Kuykendall of the school tax office said the school board election usually brought a large turnout of voters but Glen Metcalf at City Hall said he was not expecting a large vote since both the hospital and city elections were uncontested.

Absentee voting for the election of a mayor and city commissioners opened Wednesday.

Six persons are seeking three positions open this year on the school board. Two city commissioners and the mayor are seeking re-election with no opponents and three board members of the South Randall County Hospital District are up for re-election with no opponents.

The school board election will be held April 1 in the Gene Howe Elementary School and the Canyon Community Center. Polling hours will be from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. The election for the hospital board will also be April 1 in the Community Center.

Election of city officials will be held April 4 also in the Community Center.

Brown Home After Shock

James Thomas Brown, a plant attendant for the Amarillo water department, suffered a severe electrical shock Sunday morning at a wellhouse about three miles west of the Canyon Expressway.

He was resting at home Wednesday and expected to be back at work "in three or four days."

"I went into the wellhouse to service it, and the starting box was making a little noise like the holding coil wasn't up good. I hit it to make it go back into place and it hit me."

Brown said he received burns on his arm and stomach and that the charge blew a hole in the box. The well runs on a 440-volt line.

Brown managed to get back to his pickup truck and tried to drive to his father's house in Amarillo, but his coordination was getting worse, he said, so he stopped and radioed his office for help.

Mayse Presents Organ Recital

Max Mayse, West Texas State University senior of Clemmons, N.C. will be presented in an organ recital at 3:30 pm. Sunday at the Oslo Lutheran Church near Gruver.

Mayse, one in a series of guest musicians being presented this year by the church, will perform on its $50,000 Tracker organ.

The instrument, acquired about three years ago, is peculiar to North German organs. Used widely in the time of Bach, the organ is famous for its fluency and sonority.

Featured on the program will be the premier performance of "Partita on Christ lag in Todesbanden," a composition by David Booth, junior organ major from Amarillo.

Also programmed are Bach's "Toccata and Fugue in d minor," Franck's "Choral No. 3 in a minor," Vierne's "Divertissement," Jehan Alain's "Trois Pieces: Variations on a theme by Clement Jannequin" and Pachelbel's "Partita on Ach, was soll ich Sinder machen?"

really gets to you in a hurry. We've all been a little busy around here so will pass a little news on to you from all of us:

THE BLUE BIRDS HAD THEIR annual "Date with Dads" this weekend in Amarillo. All had a very good time and a good visit with their neighbors. Those attending were: Roger Whitehead and daughter, Shelley, Mr. Langford and daughter, Kim, Lori Lee Laird and her Dad Lynn, Sam Bybee and daughter Lenise, Tracy Gillis and her dad, Gil, and Stormie Moreland with her Grandpa. Stormie's Dad had to be out of town so her Grandpa filled in, isn't it nice to have a wonderful Grandpa like that!!!

WANT TO SEND A GREAT BIG congratulations along to the Bill Burdette family. A new member has been added to the family, via a new horse colt. Their mare Mitzana had a lovely black with white blanket Appaloosa, and the daddy was our stallion Shapparel Sam. If you haven't seen the pretty little thing take the kid-does and go by way of the back alley and have a peek before he starts to shed, then go back after he sheds and see what he'll look like. Don't know what they will name him yet.

THE LTC. LADIES THURSDAY Club met at Mike Whitehead's again this week. We had a special guest, Becky Hall, the Home Demonstration Agent for Randall County. She gave us a program on selecting jewelry to coordinate with your clothes and your skin and hair tones. We were glad to have another visitor, Joyce Miner. She's one of our neighbors and its real nice to get to know her a lot better. We all enjoyed lunch together and had a good time together.

HAVE A LITTLE LATE news but want to send it along. It seems that Mike Burdett Skeeter and Scooter Rogers were given a very special weekend a little while back. Joe Batson flew them up to the ranch around Spearman in his helicopter and they spent the weekend camping out and went on some hunting trips in the jeeps and they all just had a great time. The boys across the street from the Burdette's helped to arrange the whole thing and went along for the fun.

HEARD THAT BOB Morgan was involved in a most curious accident this weekend. Between a large truck, Volkswagen and their car. No one was hurt thank goodness but the description of the whole affair was something else.

HOPE LITTLE TRINA Cooper is all better and up and at 'em again.

SAW A FEW friendly faces around this past week. But not too many as I was kinda busy. Saw Sandy Fowlkes and her cousin when they stopped by to use our phone. Seems that daddy locked the house with them all on the outside and they couldn't get in when they came home and daddy was gone. Saw Sherie Evans out with doggies tagging along for a walk. Saw Joyce Miner out for her daily walk. Talked with Sam Rogers, Jr. and he's busy in college and has plans to be an architect. Saw many, many kiddoes on motorcycles, horses and trampolines. Saw the Wayne Steen's busy on their new home. Saw Marty Johnson and her dad, Corky, enjoying an afternoon of horseback riding. Saw Roger Whitehead and son, Spooky fixing a bicycle wheel. Saw a batch of good neighbors out enjoying the nice weather.

WELL, THE BYBEE HOUSE was jumping with guests and excitement Sunday afternoon. We had some very special guests from Mexico visit us and have dinner. Francis and Eva Venezuela and their young son, Aramenda were here. They were sponsored by the First Baptist Church of Amarillo and its River Ministry of which our church participates with them in. Aramenda was born with a growth in his foot and leg and he was operated on a couple of weeks ago and is doing so much better. He had on his first pair of shoes and was quite proud of them. They speak no English but language was no problem with the sweet smiles and open hearts on both sides we all did fine. They are staying with the Raymond Gonzales family in Amarillo and they were here Sunday with their daughter Edna. They will be leaving to return to their home

Judy and Lynn met and married in England and their oldest daughter, Lora Lee, age 9, was born in England. Lynn was in the Air Force at this time. Four Delegates To TSTA Meeting

Four Canyon teachers recently served as official delegates to the annual state convention of the Texas Classroom Teachers Association in Dallas February 18-19.

Delegates representing the Canyon Classroom Teachers Association were Anna Lee Reeves, first grade teacher at Rex Reeves Elementary; Vera Brown, art teacher at Canyon Junior High; Herman Demus, math teacher at Canyon Junior High; and Leonard Kent, biology teacher at Canyon High.

The voting of convention delegates played an important role in the future development of TCTA. It was at this convention that the Representative Assembly of TCTA voted for the organization to become a department affiliate of the Texas State Teachers Association — a statewide organization which includes all persons involved in education.

Palisades Palaver

Palisadites All Okay

BY VICKI HOOKER

FOR THOSE OF YOU who live in Palisades and read this column, and particularly for those who live elsewhere and read it, please note: the Palisades is not a convalescent center. If ones reads only the headlines of the two previous columns, he would think we are all anemic! But actually we are all quite well now, and to observe our weekend activities it would seem that most of us are abnormally healthy. May it never be said that our community doesn't do its bit for noise pollution! But anyway, despite injuries and the flu, we are all still here, and not becoming extinct as some may think!

SOME OF YOU MAY remember Sherri Pinson who belonged to our Home Demonstration Club last year. Her father-in-law, Mr. Wade Pinson passed away last Friday in his home in Amarillo. If you would like to send her a card or call her expressing sympathy, her address is 2601 Douglas, Amarillo, and her phone number is 355-8018.

JERRI THOMPSON is in Lubbock this week with her mother. Her mother, who is 81, fell and broke her hip, and was home alone for about 2 hours before anyone found her. We hope her hip will mend quickly, and she'll be up and around again soon.

I TALKED TO Ellie Boothe last Sunday just to find out what her family was doing. We had sort of lost contact with her since she started to work. She said they hadn't been doing much of anything out of the ordinary, but they are planning a trip to San Marcos over the Easter holidays. Her parents have moved there from Lamesa. Hope they have a safe trip, and that they have more news to report when they return!

NELL MOORE probably thought that if she didn't tell, I wouldn't find out. But I did, thanks to Ellie! Congratulations on your new position in the Gene Howe PTA as recorder parliamentarian. Nell and congratulations on your new El Camino.

THE SPOTLIGHT is on Ernie and Euna Alfred this week. They have lived here about two years, moving from Amarillo. Ernie works for the Amarillo Public Schools and Euna for Levi Strauss. Stanley of Amarillo and Frankie who is in the Marines are their two sons.

Bulb Care Discussed

Miss Louella Patterson spoke on the planting and care of bulbs at a meeting of the Palo Duro Mother-in-Law Club Mar. 10 in the home of Mrs. Mae Johnson.

Mrs. W.R. Crawford was co-hostess. The members answered roll call with household hints.

Mrs. Clark McClendon, chairman, gave the devotional.

Also present were Mesdames Frances Northcutt, Ruth Allen, Nell Sheets, Leonard Winters, Alice Black, Arthur Olsen, Gladis Samples, Lucille Rogers, M.J. Noel, J.P. Hammons, H.E. Campfield and Gladys Haines. Mrs. Modena Barker was a guest.

like to fish, and she said that that was one of the main reasons they like the Palisades. At present they are building onto their trailer, and have already completed a basement, living room, bedroom, bath, and utility room. So if you hear hammering and banging going on over near the Thompsons, don't think anything about it. It's just Ernie and Euna burning that midnight oil!

SEVERAL PEOPLE HAD asked me if I knew anything about the Dustman's. I talked to Roma over the weekend, and they are all doing well. She said she's back into that old routine of washing, drying and folding clothes, and every spare minute Robert has, he spends cleaning up around their house that burned. Roma says that when she goes over there she takes the southside and crosses the boxcar (as much as she hates the boxcar) instead of taking the north side, because that view of what's left is not as painful to look at as the other side. We'd probably all agree that they have their work cut out for them, but the clean-up process is coming along fine. And once construction begins, it won't be anytime before they'll be back in their own home again. We wish them the best of everything, and hope we can be of some help when they need it.

A BIT OF LATE NEWS: Judy Webb, Joyce McDonald, Carolyn Bailey, Belva Turner, and Kathy Bautista left the children at home with their dads weekend before last and went skiing in Red River, and from all indications had a ball. They took lessons, but somehow still managed to slide down the slopes on something other than their skis! Joyce said the chair lifts were something short of horrifying, what with Judy wiggling around taking pictures from them. And when they jumped out at the top of the slope they both fell. But no injuries were encountered, and they had a very enjoyable trip. Now, Joyce gets to stay home while Paul enjoys a trip to Las Vegas after Easter.

LAS VEGAS WILL BE THE sight for the Mint 400 in which Randy Carthel and Mike Terry of Amarillo will be riding in this weekend. They will be going with J.R. and Jackie Home and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moss. We hope they have a safe trip and that both the boys do well. THE BOARD MEETING WAS last Tuesday night, but due to deadlines I will not be able to report on it until next week. Sorry, Lum.

JODELL WALKER RECEIVED a call from Bob, who is in Dallas going to a 4-week school. He said the first night he was there he ate 58 shrimp! Now we don't know why he bothered to count them, but he did say he wasn't hungry for the next day or so. He will be home this weekend until Sunday afternoon when he will return to Dallas for another two weeks.

THE WEATHER MAY LOOK like spring is here to stay, but more than likely we will have a freeze that will kill all the beautiful fruit trees that are in bloom. However, a little bird told me that you can save your trees by hanging a piece of iron in them, providing the piece of iron doesn't pull the tree over!

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY TO Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brandon. Just thought I'd slip that in!

4-H Hears Talk Tips

Members of the Jowell 4-H Club heard Miss Connie Brazzil speak on "How to Give a Method Demonstration" at their March meeting. She also invited the members to join the 4-H Junior Leaders organization as soon as they become 13 years old.

Miss Brazzil suggested that when preparing a demonstration, the speaker should select a simple and interesting topic, collect all the information available, then make a step-by-step outline.

After getting background information and planning the demonstration, he should prepare visual aids such as posters or charts and collect the equipment needed, such as an easel, pointer, and table. Miss Brazzil said that a concise summary of the main points should conclude the presentation. If a team gives the demonstration, an equal distribution of talk and work should be developed, she added.

Mrs. James Iribek, leader, urged the members to enter a contest of method demonstration or a judging team. Sign-ups were taken for livestock judging, dairy judging, share-the-fun, and the 4-H Food Show.

Mrs. Becky Hall, county home demonstration agent, was a guest. There were 20 members and 10 adults at the meeting.

The club will meet next on April 7. A bowling party is also being planned.

Homemakers Attend Meet

Twenty seven Future Homemakers from Canyon High School and Canyon Junior High will attend the annual meeting of the Area I Future Homemakers of America March 17-18.

About 3,000 members from the Panhandle-South Plains are expected to attend the meeting in the Amarillo Civic Center.

Sponsors from Canyon to attend the meet are Mrs. Wilma Dunias, Miss Janet Sargent, Mrs. Cathy Cameron, and Mrs. Whitley.

Nine students from Canyon will sing with the Area I choir. They are Beverly Podzemny, Elizabeth Zachry, Dianna Wilhite, J. Wieck, Elaine Smiley, Nanette Reagan and Wanda Heathington.

A talent program and election of officers will be held the evening of March 17 and Dr. Gerald Mann, pastor of the Hereford First Baptist Church will speak March 18.

The theme for the meeting is "Decisions for You in '72."

Tidbits

here and there

BY CAROL CRAIN

IN CASE YOU wondered, the fine service given to guests at the Chamber of Commerce banquet last week was from members of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. It was great guys, thanks.

PHYLLIS GEORGE, Miss America 1971 and former Miss Texas, has been named Chairman of the 1972 Easter Seal Campaign in Texas. She will head over 35,000 volunteers in an appeal for funds. 21,562 children are currently being helped by the society.

THIS YEAR'S Miss World-USA is a junior at the University of Texas. The 5'7" beauty is named Brucene Smith.

Miss Texas Universe and first runner-up for the national title is, of course, Brenda Box of Amarillo.

Miss Tall USA is a coed at North Texas State University. Yes, Texas does have beautiful girls. And speaking of them...

MISS CANYON, Julie Brantley, will represent the city this Saturday in the Miss Irish Rose contest in Shamrock. This will be the first of several beauty pageants Julie will enter.

Julie is certainly a charming representative for the city — congratulations, Julie. She is the daughter of the Royal Brantleys.

A CUTE EASTER BASKET can be made from a bleach bottle. The front is cut out, probably with a razor blade, (save it, you'll use part of it to make a cap later).

A styrofoam ball (medium size) is glued to the bottle top. The face is glued onto the ball. This can take the shape of a duck or a rabbit (two eyes, either a yellow bill for the duck or small mouth, a nose and long pink ears for a rabbit). Top with a hat (trimmed with a number of small net bows and tiny flowers).

Another group of net bows decorated with dainty flowers are glued or wired around the opening in the front of the rabbit. Inside the youngsters can put the colorful Easter grass and eggs. Plus, they can hold it by the handle, while at the Easter Egg hunt.

SO, LUCI NUGENT will be in town April 18. The former White House resident was invited by the Department of Special Services of the Canyon Independent School District.

Mrs. Hazel Strickland works with the learning disabilities groups within the school system. Mrs. Nugent will speak on learning disabilities at 7:30 p.m. in the junior high auditorium.

Mrs. Strickland is certainly thorough in searching for keys to entice others about her program — and perhaps this is part of the reason why she has such success.

THAT HAIR DESIGN seminar scheduled this week has been postponed until April because of the speaker's illness.

A WEIGHT WATCHERS menu has been added to the WTSU cafeteria. This is certainly a step in the right direction, I believe. Many coeds like to watch the calorie intake and it is hard to do so on regular cafeteria food.

Weight Watchers meet at the United Methodist Church at 7 p.m. each Tuesday. For more information on the group you might attend one of the meetings.

HERE'S A BRIDAL SHOWER idea via Margaret Harper. Take the bride's first name and place one letter of her name on a separate sheet of paper.

Pass each sheet around to the guests at the shower so that they may write a note of advice (starting with that particular letter).

An example for the name SUSIE: S-Save money by shopping supermarket specials; U-Use plastic bags found on bread and other so wrapped food items to freeze in, etc.; S-Serve something he especially likes each night for dinner; I-Include him in all major purchases; E-Elevate his spirits each morning.

Oh, yes, better place a grain of salt on each sheet then give it to the bride!

Here's one more thought along that line — take the word Tidbits and try to write down each homemaker or economy tip you can think of, then send them to me (2704 Second Ave. in Canyon) and I'll share them with my readers, howabout?

ANY CARTOONISTS AROUND? I ran across this item via the phone. It seems several placement services are listing this job as available: Ghost cartoonist, part-time; write Q.E. Williams, Williams Publishing, P.O. Box 4222, zip 61110.

Must be good in satire, humor, send samples of your work.

BILL CLOUGH, Jr. son-in-law of the J.E. Lows, received first place in the Texas Associated Press Managing Editors Association in the news photo contest for 1971.

Clough, who is currently with the Houston Chronicle, won with a photo entitled "The Panhandle".

The top-notch photographer took numerous shots here during Canyon Days last summer.

He is married to the former Martha Low.

TRAVEL TIDBIT: Tyler, Texas — "The City of Roses" has the Azalea Trails and Spring Flower Show 10 days in late March and early April to herald the arrival of spring.

Some 75 home gardens are open to the public.

More than 35,000 rosebushes in nearly 400 varieties are at their floral peak from April through October at the Municipal Rose Garden (It is one of the nation's largest).

The Texas Rose Festival is held five days in October. Check with the Chamber of Commerce there for details.

VIP RECIPE FIND: Mrs. Bryan Poff serves this recipe often for guests or at family mealtime. It's also one you can serve during the holidays. "This is good for left-over turkey," the state representative's wife noted. Chicken (or Turkey) Spaghetti

ENMU Downs Buffalo Track Team Saturday

West Texas State set a trio of school records Saturday, but Eastern New Mexico University used its strong depth to take a 89-45, track victory on the Buffalo track.

Tracy Dickson, Lockney junior, ran the 440 in 48.0, breaking his own record of 48.4, set last year. Eastern's Sam Yavala won the quarter in a new ENMU school mark of 47.2.

downtown Canyon.

The proposed budget reflects about a one per cent increase over last year's.

Under revenue collections, Louder's figures show an estimated $280,000 in advalorem taxes. Last year an estimated $272,000 was shown.

Louder predicts around $57,000 will come in from sales tax, which is up around 3 to 4 per cent from last year, and water sales should reach around $215,000.

In other action planned for tonight's meeting will be awarding police car bids, and discussion of the 1971-72 contingency fund.

Sanders stated he was against busing for two reasons. First, he said, busing leads to re-segregation and secondly, busing takes the system away from the primary goal of a first class education for everyone.

Sanders said he believed the American government must do a better job of managing. "One of the greatest talents in this country is our management ability and we haven't been putting it to use in our government," Sanders noted.

Sanders stated he decided to make the race for the Senate because he thought he was qualified and Texas was not receiving the best representation from Rep. John Tower.

He said he did not believe Tower had been very attentive. "He is not heard from but every six years and his attendance record is dismal," Sanders stressed.

Sanders said the Congressional Quarterly showed Towers' absence rate to be 47 per cent.

Sanders said Tower also does not have a record of accomplishment. "I haven't been able to see that legislative or policy wise, he has had any effect," Sanders noted.

Sanders stated he was running his campaign against Ralph Yarborough as a tough race. He noted that Yarborough has been defeated five of eight times since 1938.

The candidate explained his three objections to Yarborough were that he is divisive, "he has a tendency to find a problem, pass it along, spend some money and go on" and Yarborough relies on the federal government as the exclusive problem solver for everything.

Sanders said he tried not to label himself as a liberal or conservative but that he is more conservative than Yarborough. Sanders also stated he was in favor of the depletion allowance for oil.

land.

If suit is approved by the school board, the tax attorney then writes a letter to the person and gives a period of time to pay the taxes or make arrangements to pay, Kuykendall stated.

Kuykendall said some people had come to the office and he has made arrangements to pay their taxes monthly so as not to cause any hardship.

If no action is received after the first letter from the attorney, he writes a second letter notifying the person of a suit if the tax es are not paid.

If the school district sues, the attorney must notify the other taxing units concerned and they are required to join in the suit in order to collect their share of the taxes.

The district pays the tax attorney 15 per cent of the taxes collected, Kuykendall said. This is the legal minimum. Of the $99,536 collected through the attorney, about $15,000 was paid to him.

Kuykendall said when the taxes are placed on the delinquent roll, one and one half per cent interest is charged increasing one and one half per cent each month through June. Three and one half per cent is added in July plus one-half per cent each month for the rest of the year.

For each succeeding year a straight six per cent interest is charged, according to Kuykendall.

get bids for lowering the ceiling in the district court room in the courthouse.

The commissioners also discussed the possibility of replacing the air-conditioning in the court room. The commissioners agreed to discuss the air-conditioning further after receiving bids on the ceiling.

There was some discussion of the merit of continuing to make costly repairs on the old courthouse. Commissioner John Fulgenzi said, "We keep putting money into the building and get to the point where we need to abandon the whole building."

Commissioner Bill Butler made the statement that that point was about 15 years away.

Carl Baker, county road superintendent, discussed the purchase of equipment to asphalt county roads. The commissioners asked Baker to present a complete economic profile on the cost of the county operating its own equipment.

The court agreed that the cost of the extra men to operate the equipment and maintenance cost on the equipment should be included when comparing cost of the county operated road building and hiring another company to do the paving.

In other action, the court accepted a bid from Pitney Bowes of $1,784, with trade-in for a new postage machine for the courthouse.

countered, the site probably would be abandoned.

"I make my living off you people and I still think I am fortunate to be practicing in Canyon," the veterinarian went on.

south of the motor inn, when they saw smoke coming from the second story.

"I never saw anything burn so fast," Carter described. "It took six minutes for the roof to fall in from the time we reported the fire."

Edna Bayless, 15, was working in the Cowboy Grocery, also south of the blaze, when she saw the smoke. "The smoke started on the west side and before we could call the fire department the wind caught it and the building was burning."

Lester Nixon was in the grocery when he saw the smoke and he called in an alarm.

Alfred Bayless was working in the grocery and he described the fire saying "the smoke started up, and then the wind hit it and took the flames and spread them over the entire building."

The sparks blew over and caught onto the second building (east side)."

Wilkins, Jr., arrived on the scene as the fire reached its peak. "It took me 23 years to do this," the young owner lamented. He said he was uncertain of his insurance coverage, on the motor inn.

Construction began on Thanksgiving Day last November and was to be completed for the summer tourist trade.

Sparks from the intense fire flew over the Hunsley Hill residential section and the only damaged reported was a small hole in the home owned by Col. J.S. Lawrence at 5 Bramblewood Lane. Mrs. Lawrence said her husband and a neighbor doused the fire before heavy damage could be done.

"It is a terrible thing for Canyon," Hunsley said Wednesday morning as he surveyed the smoking ruins.

Manufacturer To Visit Canyon

The inventor and manufacturer of a lubricant, Dri-Slide, will be in Canyon Sunday and Monday to discuss the possibility of placing "a major warehouse installation" here.

L.G. (Buck) Myers, the president of Dri-Slide, Inc., Fremont, Mich., plans to build a warehouse in Texas to serve as the center of a five-state distribution area, including Texas, New Mexico, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Oklahoma, according to Charles W. Parks, 2613 13th Ave.

Parks used the lubricant while serving in the U.S. Navy in Vietnam. His father, Charles E. Parks, is representing Dri-Slide here.

The federal General Services Administration has recently authorized use of the lubricant by government agencies and the military, but it was planned chiefly for industrial use.

Jeweler Charged

John Preston, former owner of Preston Jewelers of Canyon, was arraigned Tuesday on a charge of theft by bailee over $50.

Preston is charged with theft by bailee of a watch brought to him for repair, according to authorities.

Advisory Board To Help Program

A Social Work Advisory Board, composed of social service specialists from Amarillo, has been organized to assist West Texas State University's new social work program.

J.B. Brannen, executive director of Family Service, was named chairman.

Dr. Hubert W. Oppe, head of the WTSU sociology department, told the organizational meeting of the board the social work program was inaugurated during the current spring semester.

He said 61 students list social work as their major field of study and that 79 students were enrolled in social work courses.

Oppe also said there is a sequence diploma available to professional social workers who do not want to complete the requirements necessary for the social work degree.

This summer students will be placed in various social work agencies for an internship to complete the requirements for a Bachelor of Arts Degree in social work, he said.

"This field training will give students a chance to develop experience in the field in which he is interested and will be useful in social work," Oppe added.

Although the students will be working in the agencies, they will also be there to learn, he said. The field training probably will be used only in the summer and spring semesters, he added.

Oppe said that $8,000 will be available for social work scholarships next fall.

The board, which will meet again May 8, decided its principal function will be to advise on curriculum and student placement.

A Social Work Club will be formed on campus for those students interested in social work.

Other board members include Don Abernathy, Psychiatric Pavilion of Northwest Texas Hospital; Argus Burnett, Texas Panhandle Community Action Corporation; Ernest Clark, Panhandle Regional Planning Commission; Ray Dunavant, State Department of Public Welfare; Evelyn Flaherty, Veterans Administration Hospital; Don Meyers, State Department of Public Welfare; Joel Reed, Veterans Administration Hospital; Frank Reyes, Catholic Family Service; and Maj. Robert Short, Salvation Army.

Church Union Is Subject

Questions to be considered are "What Is Meant by Christian Unity?" and "What Constitutes the Fellowship of Christ?"

Mrs. Dick Jackson, coordinator of ecumenical affairs, will be chairman. Recordings by Dr. Albert Outler of Perkins School of Theology in Dallas and Dr. Rachel Hindleight of Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Austin will be heard, and discussion will take place in four small groups. Assisting Mrs. Jackson will be Mrs. Stan Elliott, Keith Jones, and Ernest Carlson.

Netters Sweep Tourney

West Texas State University, led by the strong play of number one man Paul Tobin, swept past four opponents this past weekend to win the third annual WTSU Team Tennis Tournament.

The Buffaloes won the tournament for the second consecutive year and are now one year away from retiring the traveling trophy.

Tobin was undefeated in singles play during the tournament. His top win was a 6-4, 6-4, decision over Josef Sole of Oral Roberts in Friday night's indoor matches, played in the WTSU Activities Center.

Other Buffalo singles players and their records are Mike Bolton (7-3), John Phillips (7-3), Dale Corbin (8-3), Steve Bailey (8-1) and Joe Carrick (6-0).

Story Not Correct

A story published in the Canyon News March 9 concerning the Canyon Girls Eagles indoor track meet was incorrect.

The articles stated that the Canyon Girls were the hosts of the tournament. It should have read that the West Texas State women's track team and the women's physical education majors sponsored and hosted that meet.

Eagle Netters Squeeze By Perryton 6-5, Here

The Canyon Eagle tennis squad slipped past the Perryton netters 6-5 in a team match held on the West Texas State campus Saturday.

"We really improved," said V.J. Duncan tennis coach. "I guess we will really see just how much we improved this weekend when we go to Perryton for their tourney. Dumas, Perryton, Stratford, Canadian and some Oklahoma teams will be there."

In the number one boys singles slot Canyon's Brian Stoker lost 8-10, 4-6 to Timmons, but in the number two singles Stoker whipped Jones 8-1 in a pro set.

Roy Beghtel whipped Thompson 6-3, 7-5; Ben Richardson ripped Stallings 6-1, 6-2; but Mike Oppe and Dan Collier lost to Dendy and Roberts 3-6, 6-2 and 0-6 and 3-6, 1-6 respectively.

In the three girls singles matches Jodi Hefley romped Lofino of Perryton 6-1 and 6-4, while Jodi Hefley beat Schomaker in a pro set 8-3. In the only girls singles match Canyon lost. Knight topped Suzanne Tenorio 2-6, 6-2, 2-6. Stoker and Collier teamed up to whip Roberts and Dendy 9-7, but Richardson and Beghtel dropped a match to Stallings and Jones 8-10.

In girls doubles Hefley and Tenorio topped Fletcher and Lofino 6-4, 6-8, 6-4.

Also competing in the tourney for Canyon were Marty Wydick, Jo Anna Beagle and Patty Lovelady.

WT Baseballers Win Five Games

West Texas State's baseball team took on a seven-game road trip in four days and came out of it with a respectable 5-2 record to push its season standard to 7-3.

The Buffaloes of coach Bob Sloan now take a break until next week when they travel to Albuquerque to face the University of New Mexico in a pair of games, March 23-24.

West Texas swept a three-game series from the University of Texas at El Paso, 9-2, 5-1 and 6-5. The Buffaloes split in a pair of doubleheaders with the New Mexico State Aggies.

FAY HAND and Wayne Pearson have filed for the two positions on the school board. Incumbents O.H. Rahlfs and Ben Boston are also up for election. Ben Boston filled the unexpired term of Sonny McNeill.

EDDIE WALTERS is home since Monday. He broke his leg (three bones in five places) on Friday when he stepped off the tractor. He made it fine the first time, but he looked up and he had left his cab windows open so he crawled back up to close them and when he got off the second time, he landed on a piece of water hose or pipe or something the cattle had kicked up there and it threw him. (And it hadn't rained yet. Don't guess he needed to shut those windows.) Foster Parker and Betty took him to Canyon and he was transferred to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. Betty said that Foster almost gave out holding those wet x-rays all the way up there. C.E. Hayes, went, too, so they had lots of help. Eddie was in the room with a Glen Mackey from Spearman who suffered a head injury after being thrown from a horse. They visited so much they didn't even have time for TV.

BE SURE AND GO and vote. This is a privilege and a duty and one not to be abused. Someone said last week, I forgot to mention that Bob Pulsipher is running for city commissioner along with Lloyd Rahlfs and incumbent Lloyd Venhaus. I told them to read the back issues of the paper. I had, too, mentioned Bob.

BY THE WAY, if you aren't getting the Canyon News, call me. I'll be more than happy to turn in your subscription for you. And I'll print anything printable.

I AGREE WITH Anna Bee (who writes for the Tulia Herald) that Happy is getting good news coverage. But have you noticed the lack of school news in the papers? I would like to see a lot more school news and know what is happening in the Happy School System. The public should care and should care to know. When Mrs. Moudy taught us, she also held a journalism class and we made up our own page and wrote all the news just as it appeared in the Happy paper. We enjoyed doing this and we learned. We put the page together and everything and it appeared just like that. I learned more than I've displayed in this column. But I was told that I could make it as it is and so I chose to write it this way.

TWENTY-NINE MEN attended the Brotherhood breakfast at the Baptist Church last week. The Methodist were their guest and so not all were Baptist, but that is a good number. Sam Williams was the chief cook that morning I hear and the food was good. The men washed their own dishes and enjoyed the morning and the fellowship. Our song director Sunday morning was Freddy Bailey from Wayland and originally from Friona. He brought a friend, Danny Quisenberry, another sophomore at Wayland. We had the greatest number we've had in Sunday School in years, even worthy of John Frank's announcing it and giving special mention to two classes.

JAN IRLBECK entertained

the young bridge club in her home with luncheon and an afternoon of bridge last Thursday. Turkey casserole, green bean casserole, jello salad, scalloped potatoes, hot rolls, pound cake and whipping cream was the menu enjoyed by Sara Tiry, Jeanne Johnson, Judy Shipman, Alice Womack, Dottie Foster, Skip Simons, and Billie Pearson filled in for Mary Johnson.

EVELYN DOWD, Viola Buchanan, Ruth Sims and I went to Plainview Saturday morning to the practice of the Eastern Star School to be held March 20 and 21. We were through by noon and ate lunch in the Holiday Inn.

SATURDAY EVENING was Ladies Night Out by the Happy Jaycees. The group enjoyed Mexican food and a social evening. Those enjoying the evening were Skip and Larry Simons, Joy and Norman Freeman, Donna and Dean Bryan, Kay and Vincent Venhaus, Jeanne and Ronnie Johnson, Mary and Duane Stubblefield, LaVenna and Eugene Jackson, Lynn and Chris Ritter, Della and Lloyd Venhaus, Sara and George Tiry, Dottie and Dick Foster, Tom and I, and A.J. Malone.

LOUISE WHITE and Hope Wilson attended the wedding of Louise's niece, Janice Hardaway, who married Larry Afton Duick on Saturday in Abilene. Janice's father is a Methodist minister in Lubbock.

NORMAN FREEMAN and Dick Foster attended a work forum in Vega on Thursday of last week. Ninety-one persons from 12 clubs attended.

BETTY, ELBERN, Amy and Jana Wallace recently attended the wedding of their daughter and sister, Mary, in Lubbock. Mary was the bride of Ronald James Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Standley Blythe. Both Mary and Ronald are employed in Lubbock and plan to make Lubbock their home. We wish them every happiness. Bob and Patsy Christenson also attended the wedding.

CLYDE AND JUNE Hancock are back from their trip to Acapulco. Haven't been able to talk to June.

THE PIONEER SEED and Harman-Toles sponsored a steak supper at Al's on Tuesday evening of last week. Thirty-nine attended this meeting and listened to Jim Higdon, Pioneer agronomist and Sales Manager, Jim Lindsey, Dick Rallsback and George Tiry were my informers.

I ATTENDED THE School Forum last Thursday night held during Public School Week and then visited the grade school classrooms. Mrs. Vivian Wesley first welcomed us to school and each of the 12 teachers in the elementary grades outlined their class room activities, their goals and explained their methods. About 60 parents attended.

LAST WEEK-END, the Volunteer Firemen sponsored

the couples volleyball tournament. First place trophy was won by Judy and Tuffy Thompson, Ed Wright, Dixie McManigal, Vivian Woods, and Bill Whitlow. George and Sara Tiry, Jo Bob and Linda Jones, and Marcella Shaw and Mike Starker won the second place trophy; and third place trophy was won by Traverne and Richard Vermeire, Jo Ann and Kenneth Weavers, and Connie and Reggie Johnson. Lee Donnell and Elburn Wallace were doing some pretty fair refereeing while I was there. They were awake.

HAPPY ELEVATOR COMPANY and Robert Lee sponsored a bar-b-que dinner for DeKalb on Thursday of last week at Al's. Thirty-four attended this meeting and heard Carroll Lakey, district manager for DeKalb, speak on increasing your profit. These farmers should have been well fed last week.

THE BIGGEST NEWS of last week was that Copus Boyd came home on Tuesday afternoon. Copus is a very active person and it is so much easier to do something for most of us than to tell someone else how and he is one of these people. But Copus will have to slow his mind down to keep pace with other people's feet for a time. We hear he is doing really well.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON, a total of $570 dollars in prize money was awarded to several winners of two jackpot ropings. The first average was won by Cline Stewart and Kenneth Ray of Pampa with a total of 57.7 on four head; second went to Glen Green and David Hill of Hereford with a time of 70.0 and third to Tuffy Thompson and Tom Henry with 74.7. First Go was won by Cowboy Johnson and Tom Henry and Glen Green and Jim Monroe. Second Go, Cowboy Johnson (Dimmitt) and Glen Green (Hereford) and Wade Lewis of Hereford and Tuffy Thompson. Third Go went to Jim Monroe and Glen Green and Rex Prather of Post and Tuffy Thompson. Fourth to Tuffy Thompson and Tom Henry and Rex Prather and Tuffy Thompson. The fastest steer of the afternoon was team roped in 8.5 seconds by Jim Monroe and Glen Green, both of Hereford. The average on two head was won by Cowboy Johnson and Glen Green with 24.1 seconds; second, Tommy Blasingame and Sparky Stephens, both of Hereford; third, Tuffy Thompson and Tom Blasingame. The two go rounds were won by Wade Lewis and Tuffy Thompson with 8.3 and Sparky Stephens and Tom Blasingame with 8.5. Second in the go's went to Cowboy Johnson and Glen Green with 10.7 and Tom Blasingame and Sparky Stephens with 10.1. It was a dirty and windy day.

THE CHURCH BUS took a whole load of children and Brother and Mrs. Heil and Joyce and Dick Rallsback to the W.T. Field House Monday evening to attend the Jesus Movement. Two rock groups played and everyone sang; testimonies were given; and the pastor, who was from Sunset Strip in California and had opened the first Jesus Night Club only 5 or 6 months ago, spoke on FREEDOM. He told these young people one never has freedom until they have discipline and self control. My Sheri really thought it was great. (That is today's language.)

HAPPY JAYCEES had a big attendance at their regular Monday night meeting to elect officers. Reports are that it was the greatest meeting they have ever had. Two new members were added, Chris Ritter and Foster Parker. Norman Freeman, president, conducted this meeting. Candidates for offices had campaign managers, campaign booths, give-aways, nominating and seconding speeches and campaign speeches. Run-offs were required in every phase of the election. Voting required about three hours.

NEW OFFICERS FOR the ensuing year are: President, Lloyd Rahlfs; First Vice President, George Tiry; Second Vice President, Mike Starker; Secretary, Ronnie Johnson; Treasurer, Vincent Venhaus; Director, Norman Freeman, Dean Bryan, and Dick Foster. Pat George, a Stage Vice President and a Tulia Jaycee attended the meeting.

ALFRED BUECKER, president of the Randall County Farmers Union, called a meeting to order Monday night in Canyon. A small group attended the meeting where plans were completed for the Texas Farmers Union Spring Dinner and Dance on April 8, 1972, at 7:30 p.m. in the Howard-Johnson's East. Guest speaker for the event will be Barefoot Sanders. Ralph Yarbrough had another speaking engagement on this date. A Farmers Union member will be contacting you to sell you tickets to this event.

A two-year-old in this neighborhood became bored this Tuesday morning and crawled under the house with his dog. All you mothers of two year olds may think, this funny, but Rowdy's mother, Helen, had to go get him when he couldn't find his way out. He has her fooled, he probably just wasn't ready to come out. Ha! Life is never boring.

I PASSED MY neighbors on the way to town Tuesday morning — they were moving. Sad day! We never counted the eggs, cups of stuff, etc. anymore than we counted the ice cubes in the summertime. But it was handy to have a neighbor like the Wilsons. We'll miss them.

See Ya!

Educator Discusses Free School Concept

Ideas embodied in the so-called "free" school could be used to "more humanize" the traditional educational system in this country, a West Texas State University educator says.

A "free" school is one in which students are allowed to choose their activities without interference, compulsion or coercion from adults and attendance is optional. Students are restricted only by safety considerations and respect for the rights of others.

"Evaluation of this school by a person steeped in a traditional educational system poses a difficult task," says Dr. W.M. Fred Stoker.

"To the most conservative parent or teacher this organization represents an anti-school or at least a non-school where pupils are allowed to play and avoid all disciplined learning activities."

Stoker, professor of education and head of the Department of School Services at West Texas State, commented after visiting the Konama School at Corrales, N.M., a suburb of Albuquerque.

At Konama, a "free" school started two years ago, students have no assigned time to come to school and field trips requested by students provide many of the school's activities, Stoker says.

"These excursions range from a nude swim to attending a formal lecture at the nearby University of New Mexico," he says. "The school maintains a station wagon and will attempt to take one or more students on any requested trip within a reasonable distance."

Writing in the January issue of The Educational Forum, published by Kappa Delta Pi honorary society in education, Stoker says:

"Perhaps the traditionalist will admit that this organization for individual freedom may be a good idea for at least the students who have been completely unsuccessful in the customary schools."

"One striking thing about the school and its relationships is the apparent love and absence of antagonism existing among the pupils and the staff."

"A genuine affection and regard for each person is apparent to the visitor. Believers in this educational philosophy say this kind of affinity is possible since domination and coercion by the teacher are nonexistent, allowing a mutual respect and happy situation for teachers and pupils."

Stoker says survival of the "free" school is in danger because it receives no tax money and teachers have to be willing to work for starvation wages.

"Another possibility of the free school's demise is the likelihood of a free school evolving back to the highly organized teacher centered institution against which it revolted," he says.

"Already the Konama School may be heading in that direction. Ed Paschall, who believes in the complete freedom, is leaving and the responsibility of running the school is probably going to be left with a person who is more toward the conservative side. Next year there may be scheduled classes but with optional attendance."

Cut Decides Method For Cooking Meats

BY BECKY HALL

Cooking meat properly improves flavor, changes its color and destroys organisms.

The two methods of cooking are Moist heat and Dry heat. The quality of meat from an animal ranges from tough to tender according to the part of the animal from which the cut was taken. The muscle fiber in the neck and legs become large and strong through exercise and are held together by a relatively large portion of connective tissue and gristle. In contrast the tenderloin which lies under the backbone has small, short fibers and very little connective tissue.

The flavor of meat comes in part from soluble substances known as "extractives". The larger percentage of extractives is found in the tougher cuts of meat. Even if tenderloin steak and shoulder of beef were the same price, the shoulder would be the better choice for a stew because it is more flavorful. Much of the flavor that is associated with meat is developed in the process of cooking. The amount and distribution of fat affects the richness of meat juices. The richness of flavor of some of the less tender cuts, even the leaner cuts, is due to the fat between the muscles.

Tender cuts of meat command a higher price because of their attractive appearance and the speed and ease with which they can be cooked. Proper cooking improves the appearance, flavor, and aroma of the meat, and, at the same time, retains its juiciness. Steak should be seared quickly in a hot pan or under the broiling unit and then cooked at a lower temperature. Searing browns the fat and extractives on the cut surface, thereby developing aroma and flavor, the losses in evaporation causes dryness if the cooking is continued at a high temperature. Since salt interferes with the browning, it is not added until after the tender cut has been seared.

Less tender cuts of meat must be treated in some way to break up the connective tissue or must be cooked in water until the connective tissue is softened, as in making stew. Hamburger steak illustrates breaking up the connective tissue by grinding; Swiss steak illustrates the breaking of the fibers by pounding. Soaking of a chuck steak in vinegar, lemon juice, or tomato for several hours may make it sufficiently tender to broil.

The choice of method of cooking depends on the choice of cut of meat. Less tender cuts of meat offer high nutritive value at low cost.

Two Arrested On Grand Larceny

James T. Hickman, Sr., 48, and James T. Hickman, Jr., 22, both of 5706 W. 37th in Amarillo, were arrested on charges of grand larceny Monday before Judge W.W. Hancock.

An extradition hearing is set for April 10, according to Merle Strickland of the Randall County Sheriff's Office.

Alvin Morris Runs 5 Miles

Every man in the army's 3D Civil Affairs Group (Airborne) at Ft. Clayton in the Canal Zone, can or soon will be able to run five miles without stopping. Maj. Alvin B. Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Morris, 1003 Fourth Ave., can do it. Recently he participated in an arduous 53-mile relay run across the Isthmus of Panama. Starting at Coco Solo on the Atlantic Side, Maj. Morris and his fellow paratroopers splashed into the waters of the Pacific Ocean on the other side.

The five-mile continuous running goal established in the group's physical training program is especially strenuous in the scorching sun of Panama. Few of the men could do it when the program began but now most of them can run five miles or more.

Maj. Morris is an operations and training officer with the group. He holds the Army Commendation Medal, four awards of the Bronze Star Medal and the Air Medal.

His wife, Lynne, lives at Ft. Gulick, Canal Zone, where he was last stationed.

You might just ask the new owners if they agree! I enjoy reading about the happenings in your neighborhood.

CONGRATULATIONS TO Julie Brantley, the new Miss Canyon. Our city will be well represented by you, I know.

Best wishes to you in the coming year as you reign as Miss Canyon. The Pageant was wonderful and exciting and a big thanks to the Canyon Study Club for sponsoring it all.

OUR NEIGHBORHOOD SURELY has a full week on the calendar for celebrations. Today, March 16, Judd Wilhite has a birthday. Mr. and Mrs. R.H. Sims Jr. will celebrate their wedding anniversary on March 17. Lee Don Jones is the birthday boy on March 18. Lynn Bowes celebrates her birthday Sunday, March 19. On Monday, March 20, Julie Coffman and her dad, Bud Coffman will be the birthday people. Mr. and Mrs. Alton Reeder will be celebrating their wedding anniversary March 21. And Carla Brashers is the birthday girl March 22. A very happy birthday to each of you, and congratulations to the two couples with wedding anniversaries.

WE HAVE SEVERAL IN

OUR community who had grandparents to pass from this life recently. Jearene Cartwright's grandfather, Mr. Ernest Goetz of Haskell, Texas and her great grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Hamilton of Sherman, Texas. Betty Hall's grandmother, Mrs. T.M. Spraberry of Ravenna, Arkansas. Glenne Anderson's grandmother, Mrs. Mattie Vandergriff of Canyon, and my own grandmother, Mrs. Nellie Roberson of Amherst. They had all lived long, happy and useful lives.

MR. AND MRS. HERBERT HALL brought his mother and father from Vernon home with them to stay a few days. Saturday, they took them to Lubbock to visit with another son and his family living there.

MRS. LILLIAN SCOTT comes over from Hereford often to be with her granddaughter and family, the Don Cartwrights. We do want her to feel like one of us out here.

REBA GRIFFIN WENT WITH her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Griffin and family of Olton to the Denver, Colorado area over the weekend. They toured many interesting places and visited with the Murray family in Aurora. Reba says they had a real good time and the weather was just beautiful.

MR. AND MRS. SHERMAN JONES and Lee Don drove down to Shreveport, Louisiana Friday night to attend a quarterly board meeting of the Indoor Sports Club. This club is organized for the physically handicapped. Eight members of the Amarillo Chapter were present. Approximately 40 attended from the Texas chapters and the Shreveport chapter. They had lots of excitement coming home (like car trouble) but still reported a real good trip.

GUESTS IN THE Marray Leith home Saturday were Wanda's parents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Luedecke of Pampa. In the afternoon the Doby family from Amarillo came out.
